Whitehall, July 14.

THE following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Gloucester, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, actuated by a sincere Affection for your Majesty's Person and Family, and a zealous Attachment to our excellent Constitution, both Civil and Religious, acknowledge, with the warmest Gratitude, your Majesty's constant Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and particularly the recent and signal Proof thereof, which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to give them in your late Royal Proclamation.

We have not only seen and lamented the various Attempts which have been made to excite Tumults and Disorders, by endeavouring to raise groundless Jealousies and Discontents in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects; but we have observed, with peculiar Concern, the persevering Industry, with which wicked and seditious Writings, published with that View, have been dispersed amongst all Orders and Ranks of Men throughout your Majesty's Dominions.

We are duly impressed with a Sense of that Duty which requires us, as Ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to co-operate with your Majesty's paternal Anxiety for the Preservation of the Public Peace and Prosperity, by exerting our best and constant Endeavours to guard the People committed to our Care, against the Delusions of all such as would alienate their Minds from the Love of that pure Religion which they profess, and that happy Constitution of Government under which they live: And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall not cease to exhort them to unite with us in praying for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, and an uninterrupted Succession of Princes of your Majesty's Illustrious House to the Throne of these Kingdoms, as our best Security, under Divine Providence, for the permanent Possession of those invaluable Blessings which all your faithful Subjects now enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

The following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Bangor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the humble and hearty Thanks of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, for your watchful Care and Attention, in issuing your most gracious Proclamation at this critical Juncture.

We are most truly sensible of the Excellence of our Constitution both in Church and State, and acknowledge
