Whitehall, July 21.

THE following Address of the Bishop, Precentor, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, and the Clergy of the Diocese, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of St. David's, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Precentor, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, and the Clergy of the Diocese.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Precentor, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. David, and the Clergy of the whole Diocese, beg Permission to lay at your Majesty's Royal Feet our warmest Expressions of Gratitude for your Majesty's parental Concern for the Happiness of your People, conspicuous in every Act of your Government; but more especially in your vigilant Attention to the Preservation of our happy Constitution, the Boast of these Islands, and the Envy of the World. We hold in Abhorrence those seditious Writings, in which it has been lately vilified and traduced, and we observe with Pleasure that they are universally received by your Majesty's Subjects with equal Detestation of the Malignity by which they appear to be dictated, and Contempt of the Ignorance with which they are framed. As Ministers of the Gospel of Christ, we shall ever esteem it our Duty to teach the People, that Submission to the Government under which we live is one of the most indispensable Duties of the Religion we profess; and, as Members of the Church of England, we hold ourselves particularly bound to support the Constitutional Monarchy of our Country, with the Stability of which we are sensible the Interests of the Ecclesiastical Establishment are inseparably united: We offer, Sire, our fervent Prayers to Him by whom Kings bear Rule, that your Majesty may long reign over a loyal and grateful People, and that the British Sceptre, transmitted to a long Line of your Descendants in perpetual Succession, may, with your Sovereignty, convey to them the Emulation of your princely Virtues.

The following Address of the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, beg Leave to express our grateful Sense of the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, manifested in your Majesty's Royal Proclamation.

We have observed, with the greatest Concern, the various Attempts which have been made to alienate alienate the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects from that excellent Form of Government, Civil and Ecclesiastical, which, under the kind and merciful Providence of God, has been happily established in this Kingdom. And we, who, from professional Duties, are particularly engaged in the Cultivation of all those mild and temperate Virtues which Christianity so eminently cherishes and encourages, cannot but sincerely lament all Disposition to Riot and Tumult, from whatever Grounds it may originate.

Our established Constitution, which has long been the Boast and Glory of our Country, seems to us to be admirably calculated to promote all wise, and just, and salutary Ends of Government; and at the same Time to secure to your Majesty's Subjects every Degree of Freedom, consistent with the Obligations of Morality and Religion, and the Preservation of the Peace and Happiness of the Community.

We trust that your Majesty will experience from the Civil Magistrates all due Exertions in those Matters to which your Majesty has been pleased to command their sedulous Attention. It will be our Duty also to administer all the Assistance in our Power, and to act, as far as we are able, in subserviency to your Majesty's most gracious Intentions.

The beneficial Effects which we may hope to produce in this Respect will be derived from a diligent inculcating of the Principles and Doctrines of our Religion. These will furnish the Christian Disciple with strong Reasons for not disturbing the mildest and best Government that ever existed; as well as for demeaning himself towards his Fellow Subjects, whatever may be their Description or Rank in Civil Society, with Humility, with Moderation, and with Kindness.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, has been presented to the King by the Honorable Captain George Cranfield Berkeley, one of the Representatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, animated with true Loyalty, and sensible of the manifold Blessings we enjoy from Civil and Religious Liberty, are happy to testify our Gratitude for that tender Solitude and paternal Regard, evidently manifested by your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the Interest and Happiness of all your People.

We cannot but lament that the Temper of the Times rendered the Royal Proclamation necessary, but we trust, under Divine Providence, that by your Majesty's ready Discernment, co-operating with the Ardor and Affection of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the wild and visionary Projects of wanton Speculations will be baffled, and their seditious Efforts eluded.

We likewise earnestly pray, that your Majesty's Subjects in general may ever happily experience the blessed Comforts and Effects, which result from internal Tranquillity, and by a proper Reverence to their King, a due Submission to the Laws, and just Confidence in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament, may add lasting Firmness and Stability to the Government and Constitution of their Country, and, by united Zeal for the Public Welfare, may increase the Lustre and Honor of the British Crown, and the Glory and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, has been presented to the King by the Honorable George Talbot Rice, Representative in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Carmarthen, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmest and most grateful Acknowledgements for your uniform Solitude for the true Interests and Welfare of your People, and particularly for your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation. We have seen with Indignation the Attempts that have been made, by the Publication of seditious Writings, and by the Formation and Correspondence of unwarrantable Associations, tending not only to excite Discontent in the Minds of the People, but aiming ultimately (as we conceive) at the total Subversion of a Constitution, which has for Ages been the great Boast of Britons, and the Admiration and Envy of surrounding Nations. But we are not alarmed, because we are convinced that a great irresistible Majority of the Nation unites with us in firm Attachment to our excellent Constitution, and in a grateful Sense of the Blessings and unexampled Prosperity we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benign Government; and because we feel a settled Determination, in our several Stations and Capacities, to support the Laws with Energy and Effect, to maintain and preserve, unimpaired, the Rights of Freedom transmitted to us by our Ancestors, and to resist, if the Necessity shall so require, at the Risk of whatever is most dear and valuable to us, any rash and wicked Attempts, tending to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects from the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and excellent Government.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Radnor, has been presented to the King by John Lewis, Esq; Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Radnor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Radnor, beg Leave to lay lay before your Throne the strongest Assurances of a loyal and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to express our Gratitude for the repeated Instances of your Majesty's Vigilance and Attention to the Prosperity and Happiness of your People, and particularly for your late Proclamation.

Fully sensible of the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under our most excellent and invaluable Constitution, we should deem ourselves unworthy of the Name of Britons were we not to express our highest Veneration for that Constitution, established by our Ancestors, and which it is our Duty to protect, and our earnest Wish to transmit, unimpaired, to the latest Posterity.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we view with Indignation the Attempts of factious and turbulent Men, whose Endeavours are alone calculated to deprive us of the real Blessings we derive from your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and from a Constitution which it is the Pride of every good Subject to support and defend.

May your Majesty long continue the Sovereign of an enlightened, free, and prosperous Nation.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Radnor, has been presented to the King by John Lewis, Esq; Bailiff of that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Radnor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Radnor, humbly beg Leave to express our most grateful Thanks for the recent Mark of your Majesty's paternal Goodness, manifested in your late Royal Proclamation.

Conscious of the Blessings we enjoy under a Government which has long been the Envy and Admiration of the World, we cannot, as good Subjects, but hold in Abhorrence and Detestation the wicked Attempts of artful and designing Men, who, under the specious Pretence of reforming the Constitution, are, in Fact, endeavouring to subvert it.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 2d Day of July, 1792.

John Lewis, Bailiff.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley and its Neighbourhood, has been presented to the King by Lord Viscount Dudley, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, (Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley and its Neighbourhood) humbly present our most grateful Acknowledgements for the truly paternal Solitude at all Times evinced by your Majesty for the Welfare of your People, and particularly by the late gracious Proclamation.

Conscious of the peculiar Blessings and Advantages resulting from our present Form of Government, we behold, with indignant Concern, the nefarious Measures which have been industriously used to subvert it, by those who mistake Licentiousness for Liberty, and Anarchy for the sacred Rights of Man.

That the Voice of Sedition may for ever be silenced; that the Spirit of Anarchy may be defeated in it's Aim; that all the Subjects of the British Empire may cheerfully unite in promoting it's important Interests; and that your Majesty may long reign over a free and loyal People, is, and ever will be, our most earnest Wish and Prayer.

Whitehall, July 21.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, beg Leave to acknowledge the fresh Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your Kingdoms, which is manifested by your late Royal Proclamation.

We are too sensible of the many Blessings for which we are indebted to the free and happy Constitution under which we live, not to reprobate, with becoming Indignation, those inflammatory and seditious Writings, which have of late been circulated with such Industry, for the Purpose of raising a Distrust of your Government, and Dissatisfaction with our National Establishments. We consider them as the more injurious to the Public Tranquillity, as they are calculated to flatter the Passions, and excite the Discontent of the more numerous Part of the Community, and give a delusive Plausibility to Principles which we consider not only as subversive of the British Constitution, but incompatible with any rational or permanent System whatever of Civil Government.

The Houses of Parliament have in no Instance more faithfully represented to your Majesty the Public Sentiments than by the Constitutional Confidence with which they have anticipated the Opinion, and engaged the Concurrence of the Nation to second, with Zeal and Gratitude, such Exertions as your Majesty shall find necessary to repress all seditious Practices and Doctrines.

We receive with Confidence the gracious Promises of your Majesty's utmost Endeavours to secure to us a Continuance of our present Prosperity, and adopt, with perfect Satisfaction, the Eulogium pronounced by your Majesty upon the Constitution, "That it is the Source of legal and well-regulated Freedom."

Signed at the Request, and on Behalf of the County Meeting, Matt. Humphreys, Sheriff of the County of Wilts.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord
Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the profoundest Respect, and with our most grateful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's paternal Care for your People, manifested in your late Royal Proclamation for discouraging and suppressing mischievous and seditious Publications and Meetings.

We beg to assure your Majesty that it is with infinite Concern we have perceived the wicked Attempts of turbulent Persons to disturb the National Happiness and Tranquillity, by dispersing among the People Writings of a dangerous Nature, tending to alienate their Affections from your Majesty's Government, and from the very Form and Spirit of that glorious Constitution, which has long been the Boast of Englishmen and the Envy of surrounding Nations.

We are persuaded that it is only by the careful Preservation of that Constitution that we can hope to secure and perpetuate those great Political Blessings, of which this Nation almost exclusively boasts, and avoid those dreadful Scenes of Outrage and Confusion which must inevitably follow the Adoption of visionary and incoherent Doctrines, subversive of all Political Order and Subordination, and utterly impracticable in a polished and civilized Society.

Under these Impressions, and while we experience such singular Favours of Divine Providence, and and such numberless Political Blessings, we desire to express our utmost Indignation at any Attempts (from whatever Motives they arise) to seduce and alienate the Public Mind from your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; and we beg to assure your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our Power, discourage, counteract, and suppress every insidious or open Attempt to disturb the National Peace and Security, and will endeavour to strengthen and confirm in the Minds of the People their long-established Regard and Affection for the Constitution of their Country in Church and State; under whose liberal and benign Influence they have long enjoyed all the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty, and which, we trust, will be continued, in undiminished Purity and Vigour, to the latest Posterity.

[Transmitted by Fleetwood Parkhurst, Esq; Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and Council of the Isle of Mann.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and Council of your Majesty's Island of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, truly and most gratefully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under the mild and just Reign of your Majesty, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with Hearts filled with Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Government and Family.

We are, Sire, earnestly solicitous to transmit, unimpaired, to our Posterity, the Constitution handed down to us by our Ancestors, and containing in itself every Power necessary to the Preservation and Security of Liberty and Property, as

Change of Times or Circumstances may require, being an Emanation from that of Great Britain, under which Liberty the most pure, the most generous and manly, is proved by Experience to be; as best or only secured by good Government, intirely consistent with Order the most perfect.

At a Time therefore when it is, but too evident there are Men, insidious as they are wicked and arrogant, who are endeavouring to subvert all Order, and that Constitution and Government, under which, with the Blessings of the Almighty on the virtuous and auspicious Reign of your Majesty, the British Empire, surest Test of good Government, has prospered to a Height of Wealth, of Grandeur and of Power, unknown before in the Annals of the World, we think it our indispensable Duty to offer to your Majesty, ever the Father of your People, and watchful to promote their best Interests, and to secure their Prosperity and Happiness, the humble but ardently sincere Tribute of our best Thanks, for the recent Instance of that paternal Care and Attention to preserve to your People the Blessing they enjoy, manifested in the Royal Proclamation against wicked and seditious Publications. But judging, Sire, from our own Hearts, we trust that, among all your Majesty's good Subjects, there will ever be but one Mind, one Voice, one stedfast Determination, to support your Majesty in preserving their happy and noble Constitution and Government, as by Law established, from Innovations whatsoever; and it is with a Pleasure, well founded as sincere, we are most happy to assure your Majesty, that in these we express the Sentiments of all your Majesty's People in this Isle, who, however distant in Situation, or separated in Condition, yet in Loyalty and Zeal of Attachment to the Person, Family and Government of their most gracious and beneficent Sovereign, yield not to any other Subjects on Earth, however circumstanced, wherever placed.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Shaw.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Keys of the Isle of Mann, in Tynwald assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Keys, the Representatives of your Majesty's Island of Mann, most gratefully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under the mild and just Reign of your Majesty, beg Leave, Sire, to approach your Royal Throne with Hearts filled with Sentiments of purest Loyalty, and warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and uniting with the rest of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, we declare our Disapprobation of all seditious Writings and criminal Correspondences, calculated to excite Tumult and Disorder in your Dominions. We are earnestly solicitous to transmit, unimpaired to our Posterity, the Constitution handed down to us by our Ancestors, which secures the Liberty and Happiness of the People, and permits Improvement according to the Change of Times and of local Circumstances.

We therefore think it, Sire, our indispensable Duty at this Crisis to offer to your Majesty the humble and most sincere Tribute of our Thanks for the recent Instance of that paternal Care and Attention to preserve to your People the Blessings they enjoy, manifested in your Proclamation for the suppressing seditious

sedition Publications and criminal Correspondences, which may be productive of the most alarming Consequences. And we trust that all your Majesty's Subjects, enjoying such abundant Happiness and Prosperity, under the just, mild and auspicious Reign of your Majesty, will cheerfully unite in a firm Support of your Majesty's Endeavors to preserve the Government and Constitution of all your Dominions, as by Law established, against every Attempt to subvert the good Order of Society. And it is, Sir, with a Pleasure well-founded as sincere, we assure your Majesty, that in these we express the Sentiments of all your Majesty's Subjects in this Isle, who, in Loyalty and Zeal of Attachment to your Royal Person, Government and Family, will not yield to any in your Majesty's Dominions.

By Order of the House,
John Taubman, Speaker.

House of Keys, Isle of Mann,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the unwearied Attention of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Preservation of our excellent Constitution. It will ever be the Object of our most ardent Wishes to perpetuate, as far as in us lies, the Blessings of that Liberty which, under your Majesty's gracious and just Government, we so happily enjoy. We declare our Abhorrence of every Attempt to loosen the Obligations of Law, or to alienate the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects from their Allegiance and Duty. We earnestly pray, that God will be pleased to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, secure in the loyal Attachment of a free, willing and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commisioners of Supply of the County of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, highly sensible of the many Blessings we and all your other Subjects enjoy in every Part of the extended Empire, from the spirited Exertions of your Government, we pray for the long Continuance of your Reign.

We humbly thank your Majesty for the late Royal Proclamation, and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will zealously support the Principles of it, and consider all the Authors of seditious Publications as Enemies to our happy and envied Constitution, and will do every Thing in our Power to bring them to just Punishment.

We also gladly embrace this Opportunity of most heartily congratulating your Majesty on the brilliant Success of your Royal Arms in the East Indies under the Command of Lord Cornwallis, and on the wise Measures pursued by your Majesty's Servants, both at Home and Abroad, as to the Conduct of the National Affairs in that Quarter of the World, by which we have the strongest Hopes that the Trade and Prosperity of this Kingdom will be greatly advanced, and its Peace permanently secured.

Signed by our Præses, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Banff, July 9, 1792.

Fife, P.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Faversham, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to return your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgments for your Royal Proclamation; and although we lament that the dangerous Doctrines which have been lately promulgated, and with no small Industry disseminated, for the Purpose of subverting our present happy Establishment, have rendered necessary this paternal Mark of your Majesty's affectionate Care, we rejoice in the Opportunity of declaring our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Happy in the Possession of all that can render Life desirable, it is our Duty to guard with Vigilance, and to preserve with Ardour, the Constitution under which it is our Glory to be born.

Feeling, as we do, the Value of the Blessings it imparts, and conscious that these can be preserved only by a due Submission to the just and equal Laws by which we are governed, we cannot but express our Detestation of those Principles, which, under the Pretence of holding out a purer System of Things, would substitute Anarchy for Order, Tyranny for Liberty, and Misery for Happiness.

Animated with these Sentiments, and urged by every Motive of Interest to maintain them, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that beholding with Pleasure the general Triumph of Sense over Sophistry, and of Reason over Folly, we shall not cease, on our Parts, to prove ourselves good Subjects and honest Citizens, and to give every possible Support to a Constitution founded in Wisdom and upheld by Justice.

[Transmitted by Matthew Bloxam, Esq; Representative in Parliament for Maidstone.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient Burgh of Whithorn, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, in order to express the deep Sense of Gratitude we entertain for the great Care and Concern manifested towards your Subjects in your late gracious Proclamation.

We beg Leave to thank your Majesty for this timely and salutary Measure, so wisely adopted to put a Stop to those seditious Publications and Writings, by wicked and designing Men, tending to subvert our present happy Constitution, by exciting a Spirit of Tumult and Sedition among the People, and a Distrust of their legal Representatives in Parliament;

by

by holding forth fictitious and inflammatory Grievances, and deluding them by visionary Speculations; and to inform your Majesty, that we consider ourselves called upon by our Duty, as well as in Obedience to your Royal Proclamation, to use every Effort for bringing the Authors and Abettors of such Writings to condign Punishment.

Sensible of the Happiness and Freedom we derive from your Majesty's just and mild Government, and convinced that the Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms depend, under Divine Providence, upon Obedience to the Laws and due Subordination amongst the various Orders of the Community, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it is our firm Resolution, to the utmost of our Power, to maintain the Authority of Government in it's full Force, and to promote a Spirit of Tranquillity among the People, and to inculcate the Necessity of a Submission to the Laws, in order to preserve, unimpaired, our glorious Constitution, the Envy of surrounding Nations.

That your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre over a free, a loyal, and a happy People, and that those who live under the Protection of your mild and equitable Government may be duly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy, is our sincere Prayer.

Signed in our Presence by the Town Clerk of this Burgh, and sealed with the Seal of the Burgh, by our Appointment, at Whithorn, the 11th Day of July, 1792.
