

seditions Publications and criminal Correspondences, which may be productive of the most alarming Consequences. And we trust that all your Majesty's Subjects, enjoying such abundant Happiness and Prosperity, under the just, mild and auspicious Reign of your Majesty, will cheerfully unite in a firm Support of your Majesty's Endeavors to preserve the Government and Constitution of all your Dominions, as by Law established, against every Attempt to subvert the good Order of Society. And it is, Sire, with a Pleasure well-founded as sincere, we assure your Majesty, that in these we express the Sentiments of all your Majesty's Subjects in this Isle, who, in Loyalty and Zeal of Attachment to your Royal Person, Government and Family, will not yield to any in your Majesty's Dominions.

By Order of the House,
John Taubman, Speaker.

House of Keys, Isle of Mann,
July 5, 1792.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Shaw.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the unwearied Attention of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Preservation of our excellent Constitution. It will ever be the Object of our most ardent Wishes to perpetuate, as far as in us lies, the Blessings of that Liberty which, under your Majesty's gracious and just Government, we so happily enjoy. We declare our Abhorrence of every Attempt to loosen the Obligations of Law, or to alienate the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects from their Allegiance and Duty. We earnestly pray, that God will be pleased to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, secure in the loyal Attachment of a free, willing and affectionate People.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Peterborough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, highly sensible of the many Blessings we and all your other Subjects enjoy in every Part of the extended Empire, from the spirited Exertions of your Government, we pray for the long Continuance of your Reign.

We humbly thank your Majesty for the late Royal Proclamation, and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will zealously support the Principles of it, and consider all the Authors of seditious Publications as Enemies to our happy and envied Constitution, and will do every Thing in our Power to bring them to just Punishment.

We also gladly embrace this Opportunity of most heartily congratulating your Majesty on the brilliant Success of your Royal Arms in the East Indies under the Command of Lord Cornwallis, and on the wise Measures pursued by your Majesty's Servants, both at Home and Abroad, as to the Conduct of the National Affairs in that Quarter of the World, by which we have the strongest Hopes that the Trade and Prosperity of this Kingdom will be greatly advanced, and its Peace permanently secured.

Signed by our Præses, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Banff, July 9, 1792.

Fife, P.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Faversham, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to return your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgments for your Royal Proclamation; and although we lament that the dangerous Doctrines which have been lately promulgated, and with no small Industry disseminated, for the Purpose of subverting our present happy Establishment, have rendered necessary this paternal Mark of your Majesty's affectionate Care, we rejoice in the Opportunity of declaring our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Happy in the Possession of all that can render Life desirable, it is our Duty to guard with Vigilance, and to preserve with Ardour, the Constitution under which it is our Glory to be born.

Feeling, as we do, the Value of the Blessings it imparts, and conscious that these can be preserved only by a due Submission to the just and equal Laws by which we are governed, we cannot but express our Detestation of those Principles, which, under the Pretence of holding out a purer System of Things, would substitute Anarchy for Order, Tyranny for Liberty, and Misery for Happiness.

Animated with these Sentiments, and urged by every Motive of Interest to maintain them, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that beholding with Pleasure the general Triumph of Sense over Sophistry, and of Reason over Folly, we shall not cease, on our Parts, to prove ourselves good Subjects and honest Citizens, and to give every possible Support to a Constitution founded in Wisdom and upheld by Justice.

[Transmitted by Matthew Bloxam, Esq; Representative in Parliament for Maidstone.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Whithorn.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient Burgh of Whithorn, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, in order to express the deep Sense of Gratitude we entertain for the great Care and Concern manifested towards your Subjects in your late gracious Proclamation.

We beg Leave to thank your Majesty for this timely and salutary Measure, so wisely adopted to put a Stop to those seditious Publications and Writings, by wicked and designing Men, tending to subvert our present happy Constitution, by exciting a Spirit of Tumult and Sedition among the People, and a Distrust of their legal Representatives in Parliament;

by

