Whitehall, July 28.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, humbly approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the warmest Affection to your Royal Person, and of invariable Attachment to our Constitution in Church and State. We beg Leave to express to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for the recent and seasonable Instance of your vigilant Attention to the Welfare of your People, in issuing your Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications, and for the Maintenance of Public Tranquillity. Convinced that we now enjoy the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty to an Extent unknown in the History of Mankind; and that these Kingdoms have arrived at an unexampled Height of Power and Prosperity, we have observed with equal Astonishment and Concern, the daring Attempts which have been lately made to excite Discontent and Confusion in this free and flourishing Country. The Opinions which weak or designing Men are endeavouring to disseminate are not only subversive of our happy Constitution, but are also repugnant to the fundamental Principles of political Government, and incompatible with that Subordination which is essential to the very Existence of Civil Society. It is the Duty and Interest of all Orders of Men to unite their zealous Exertions for the Purpose of checking these mischievous and groundless Theories; but we feel ourselves, as Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, peculiarly called upon, in this Hour of Alarm and Danger, to inculcate the Christian Precepts of Obedience to Magistrates, and of quiet and peaceable Conduct. Our Prayers will never be wanting, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People, and that the Crown of these Kingdoms may descend, in unimpaired Splendour, to your latest Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Dorset, assembled by publick Advertisement, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to testify their grateful and unanimous Acknowledgements of the unremitting Care and Attention you have invariably bestowed to preserve to them, unimpaired, a Constitution, which, whilst it possesses the Admiration, excites the Envy of surrounding Nations. Impressed, Sire, with these Sentiments, they cannot see but with the deepest Regret any Attempt made to shake the publick Confidence in that glorious Fabrick, which the Wisdom and Virtue of their Ancestors have transmitted to them.

The Advantages which, under the Government of your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors, have been derived from legal and well-regulated Freedom, and the unexampled Blessings which we actually enjoy, afford to your Majesty's Subjects peculiar Motives to reflect with Gratitude on their present Situation, and to beware of those delusive Theories, which are inconsistent with the Relations and Duties of all Civil Society; and we deem it, under the present Circumstances, the peculiar Duty of every good Citizen to discourage and counteract every Attempt, direct or indirect, against Public Order and Tranquillity.

Impressed with these Opinions, we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty of our firm Determination to support you in the Resolution which your Majesty has adopted: And we are fully persuaded that every Exertion which may be necessary will be seconded by the Zeal and Gratitude of a loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City and Neighbourhood of Carlisle.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the City and Neighbourhood of Carlisle, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most cordial Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and at the same Time to express the strong Sense we entertain of the Blessings derived to us from our happy Constitution in Church and State.

It is not without much Regret that we have seen the misguided Efforts which have been made to weaken, in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, the Sentiments of Submission to the Laws, and of Confidence in Parliament, upon which (under Divine Providence) chiefly depends the Continuance of those distinguished Advantages which we now actually enjoy.

Satisfied that real Liberty can exist only under the Protection of Law and the Authority of efficient Government, and that the mixed Form of our Legislature comprehends and provides for the Interest of all the various Descriptions of the Community, we wish to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for your late Royal Proclamation.

We think it a Measure wisely calculated to repress seditious Practices, and guard the unwary against the dangerous Effects of those delusive Theories of Government, which have been industriously circulated in every Part of the Kingdom: We trust that the groundless Jealousies and Discontents which are endeavoured to be raised in the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects will soon subside, that they will be thankful for this fresh Instance of your Majesty's earnest Solicitude for their Welfare, and that your Majesty's wise Precautions for the Peace and Happiness of the People will be supported and seconded by the vigorous Exertions of every free and loyal Subject.

[ Transmitted by the Rev. Mr. J. D. Carlyle. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's very faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our most cordial Thanks for the paternal Care and Attention to the true Interests of your People, manifested in your late Royal Proclamation.

We cannot but consider the Writings, Associations, and Correspondences, to which it alludes, to be of the most pernicious Tendency, and calculated to produce universal Anarchy.

We feel ourselves inexpressibly happy under a Constitution which, while it affords Protection to the Persons and Property of the Subjects, diffuses at the same Time the Blessings of rational and true Liberty.

We shall ever esteem it our Duty and Glory to evince the firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and to oppose, to the utmost of our Power, every insidious Attempt to diminish the Vigour of our most excellent Constitution.

[ Transmitted by William Wilberforce, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of York. ]

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Capital Burgesses, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of the ancient and Royal Borough of Axbridge, in the County of Somerset, beg Leave to approach the Throne with heartfelt Thanks for your Majesty's unremitting Attention to the Welfare of your People, and particularly for that Instance of it displayed by the late Proclamation. We lament that there exist Men so lost to all Sense of good Government in Society, as to attack a Constitution which has, for a Series of Years, been the Admiration of surrounding Nations, and a constant Source of Happiness to those who have lived under it. That Constitution, in its Forms as settled at the Revolution, we have always held in Veneration; and we confide that a due Attention to the Objects pointed out in your Majesty's late Proclamation, will effectually prevent any Attempt to destroy or disturb it. Should any such Attempt be made, we pledge ourselves to resist it, at every Risk to our Property and Persons. That your Majesty may long continue the Sovereign of a People enjoying the Freedom which our Constitution gives us, is our most ardent Prayer.

[ Transmitted by J. Payne, Esq; Mayor. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Residentiary and Prebendaries of your Collegiate Church of St. Mary in Southwell, together with the Clergy of the Jurisdiction of the Chapter of Southwell, feeling ourselves relieved from many uneasy Apprehensions by the issuing of your Royal Proclamation, beg Leave to approach your Throne with those Expressions of Gratitude which the Occasion demands, and which neither our Reason nor our Duty will allow us to withhold.

It was very painful and grievous to observe what active Exertions were employed in the Propagation of pernicious Principles, which originated in the foulest Corruption of Mind, and directly tended to the Annihilation of all moral Sentiment, and must necessarily have ended in Public Confusion and National Calamity.

We trust that the Approach of these dreadful Evils is now repressed by the Wisdom and Fortitude of your Majesty's Counsels, and we expect with Confidence a full Enjoyment of all those social Comforts, which can only flow from the just Administration of legal Government.
