

chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, in Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's benign Attention to the Interests and Happiness of your People.

At the present Moment we feel ourselves called upon, in an especial Manner, to evince our Gratitude for your Majesty's well-timed Exertions to suppress and prevent a rising Spirit of Sedition.

Convinced of the Blessings which we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy, under the present System of Government, we will earnestly endeavour to preserve the same inviolate; and, with the utmost Sincerity and Truth, we assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty, of our constant Efforts in Favour of Order and Tranquillity, and of our firm Attachment to the Laws and established Constitution in Church and State.

Given under our Common Seal this 16th Day of July, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign; and signed by Order of Court,

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Gratitude and Thanks for your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and this, particularly manifested, by your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of such seditious Publications as might not only interrupt the temporary Peace and good Order of Society, but be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

With Detestation and Regret we have seen the Press teeming with Doctrines calculated to destroy our excellent Constitution, the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations; and such as we have received it from our Ancestors, at the Expence of their Blood and Treasures, it is our bounden Duty to maintain, inviolate, and to transmit to Posterity, at the Risk of our Lives and Fortunes.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no lawful Means of giving Effect to your Royal Proclamation shall be wanting on our Parts, and that the greatest Happiness we can experience will be to live a free and loyal People in the Heart of a good and affectionate King.

[ Transmitted by Thomas Jones, Esq; Sheriff of the County. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to express the warmest Sentiments of our Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your tender Regard to the true Happiness of your People, in issuing your late Royal Proclamation for suppressing Tumults and preventing seditious Publications and illegal Associations.

It becomes us, Sire, to be more sensibly thankful to the Caution and Wisdom of your Majesty's Council, as in these Parts of your Majesty's Empire every Stratum has been exerted to overthrow the established Religion. We have the utmost Confidence in your Majesty, and are ever prepared to forfeit our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of our Country, it's Constitution, and the illustrious House of Brunswick.

It shall be our particular Attention to be vigilant over the insidious Principles of disaffected and turbulent Minds, and to stem that Torrent of Anarchy and Confusion, which (happily for your Majesty's Kingdom and it's Peace) seems to prevail alone amongst certain factious Citizens of erroneous Persuasion, who can (not with Indifference behold) but abet the horrid and alarming Perplexities which now ravage the Continent.

It is our most fervent Wish that your Majesty may be ever possessed of the Hearts of all your Subjects, which the Mildness of your Majesty's Government has so deservedly claimed. May that undisssembled Piety (of which your Majesty is so conspicuous an Example) effectually promote and recommend the Cause of Virtue and Religion; may it check the progressive Strides of Schism and Profaneness; and may that God, whom you so faithfully serve, long, very long, preserve your Majesty, the most beloved Sovereign of a dutiful, grateful, and affectionate People.

By Order of the County Meeting,

Edw. Corbet, Sheriff.

[ Transmitted by Edward Corbet, Esq; ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Interest of your People, and our Approbation of that Proclamation, which has been so seasonably issued, to check the Diffusion of Principles incompatible with our Duty as Subjects, our Happiness as Men, and subversive of our glorious Constitution.

We have seen with Regret the Conduct of those whose intemperate Zeal would lead them to destroy that Liberty which they affect to recommend, and we are happy in having it in our Power to congratulate your Majesty on the good Effects that have already flowed from a Proclamation so timely issued; and we trust that the Check already given, and which has been so warmly seconded by the general Concurrence of our Fellow Subjects, will, in the End, be effectual to prevent those Disorders which, but for your Majesty's gracious Interposition, we had too much Reason to apprehend.

Firmly
