Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 7. to Saturday August 11, 1792.

Whitehall, August 11.

THE following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Norwich, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Assurances of sincere Attachment to your Person, and of Zeal for the Laws and Constitution of the Land. In the one we contemplate, with unaffected Veneration, those Virtues which adorn private Life, and add Lustre to the Crown; in the other we experience all the Advantages of which Society is capable, Freedom, Order, Security.

Under these Impressions, it is impossible that we should not have observed, with equal Regret and Abhorrence, the Industry with which seditious Writings have been circulated, for the Purposes of poisoning the Minds of the ignorant, and alienating the Affections of the many, from that Form of Government which has hitherto been the Britain, and the Envy of Europe.

As the Ministers of the Gospel, and therefore the Ministers of Peace, it is our Duty, and shall always be our earnest Care, as well by Example as by Precept, to discourage and prevent, as far as we are able, every Tendency to Disaffection, Disturbance, or Sedition. Sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under a free Government and a virtuous King, our Prayers are anxiously directed to Heaven for a long Continuance of them; for the Continuance of Health to your Majesty; and of Freedom, Order and Loyalty to your People.

Whitehall, August 11.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Rector, Principals and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Rector, Principal, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave to express our affectionate Regard to your Majesty's Person and Family; our Sense of the Prosperity and the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild and gracious Government, and our Detestation of every Attempt, by seditious Writings or otherwise, to excite a Spirit of Disaffection, or endanger the Public Tranquillity.

Firmly attached to those rational Principles of Liberty, which are equally essential to the true Dignity of the Sovereign and the Happiness of the People, and which can subsist only by Means of regular Government and a due Subordination of the various Ranks of Society, we shall make it our earnest Endeavour to co-operate, in our Stations, with the Intentions signified in your Majesty's gracious Proclamation, and to discourage every Measure which, under the Pretext of holding forth visionary Schemes of Liberty, tends to subvert that Regard which we owe to our happy Constitution, and pave the Way to public Anarchy and Confusion; and we shall be careful to inculcate into the Youth under our Charge those Principles of Submission to legal Government, without which no Nation can prosper, nor true Liberty subsist.

That it may please Almighty God to preserve long your

your valuable Life; that you may be happy in your Family, and enjoy the greatest Blessing a virtuous Sovereign can feel, that of reigning in the Hearts of a free and orderly, an affectionate and prosperous People, shall ever be our earnest Wish and fervent Prayer.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Faculty,

*William Forbes, Rector.
George Campbell, Principal.
Robert Hamilton, Secretary.*

Aberdeen, July 27, 1792.

[Transmitted by Sir William Forbes, Rector of the University.]

The humble Address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, in the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most affectionate and dutiful Subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, fully sensible of the many Blessings we have long enjoyed under the most excellent Form of our present Constitution, both in Church and State, cannot but lament whenever it is liable to suffer any Interruption from an ill-directed or misguided Zeal. We should feel ourselves wanting in Duty to your Majesty, and to ourselves as good Citizens, if we did not stand forward with others of your loyal Subjects to express our highest Approbation of your Majesty's late Proclamation, which is wisely calculated to suppress, by legal Authority, whatever might eventually tend to unhinge the Minds of a large Description of your People, alienate them from their Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government, and render them insensible to their own Happiness and Welfare under your most gracious Protection.

That your Majesty's Reign may continue to be long, prosperous, and happy, is the unfeigned and ardent Wish of a Body of Men, whose more peculiar Province, it is to inculcate and promote, to the utmost of their Power, both by Precept and Example, good Order, Harmony, and universal Benevolence among all Ranks of their Fellow Creatures.

Given under the Common Seal of our Archdeaconry, this 2d Day of August, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Transmitted by Dr. Waddilove, Dean of Ripon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach your Presence with Hearts impressed with the deepest Sense of the Blessings which we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, have enjoyed under your Majesty's long, prosperous and happy Reign.

While we presume to express our utmost Veneration for the happy Constitution under which we live, as settled, on a permanent Basis, at the ever memorable and Glorious Revolution, and our Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, we at the same Time declare our Abhorrence of those dangerous and seditious Writings which have of late been published under the false Colour and Pretence of reforming a Constitution, already the Admiration and Envy of all Europe, and which, under your Majesty's benign and auspicious Reign, has diffused the happiest Gifts of Liberty amongst Millions.

We beg Leave further to return our heartfelt Thanks to your Majesty for your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, expressed in your late Proclamation, so happily adapted to discourage and frustrate the wicked and traitorous Designs of the secret Enemies of our Constitution; and to declare our firmest Intention to support your Majesty's Person and Government, to the utmost of our Power, against all Enemies whatsoever.

By Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Dumbarton,

Ja. Colquhoun.
