

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 11, to Tuesday August 14, 1792.

Whitehall, August 14.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Acknowledgements for your paternal Attention to the Public Welfare, by the seasonable Interposition of Royal Authority, to counteract and repress the seditious Writings which have of late been so industriously dispersed throughout the Kingdom.

Blest with a Form of Government which cherishes Liberty as far is compatible with Order and Subordination, and under the beneficial Influence of which Great Britain has risen to an unexampled Height of Prosperity, we have observed, with Surprise and Indignation, that there exist amongst us Men so infatuated as to be insensible of the National Felicity, or so unprincipled as to endeavour to destroy it.

But such malignant Endeavours, we trust, will no longer be exerted; convinced as their Authors and Abettors must now be, that they would be exerted in vain. Your Majesty's Proclamation has been the happy Means of ascertaining and collecting the Sentiments of the great Body of the People; and while it calls forth from your Subjects of every Order and Denomination, in every Part of Kingdom, the warmest Expressions of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and of Attachment to the Constitution, it well becomes us, Ministers of a Church whose Interests are inseparable from those of the State, to join in the general Voice of our Fellow Citizens; and to pledge ourselves to your Majesty, that it shall be ever our Study, by a diligent and conscientious Discharge of the Duties of our Profession, to insure to Civil Government those powerful Aids that may be derived from Religion.

[Transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Salisbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, assembled at a General Meeting in the Borough of Truro, pursuant to public Notice, unite in offering to your Majesty our sincere Thanks for your paternal Attention to your Subjects, in issuing your late Proclamation, guarding them against seditious Writings, published and industriously circulated for the Purpose of exciting groundless Discontents and Jealousies in the Minds of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, respecting the Laws and Constitution of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Detestation of such Proceedings, and our Abhorrence of such Correspondences with Persons in Foreign Parts, which aim at the Subversion of all regular Government, and are inconsistent with the Peace and good Order of Society.

And we further assure your Majesty of our zealous Attachment to the present Form of our Constitution, to which, under Divine Favor, we are indebted for our unexampled Happiness and Prosperity; and that we will avoid, and to the utmost of our Power discourage and prevent, all Proceedings tending to promote Riots and Tumults; and that will, in every Mode warranted by Law, cordially join in discovering the Authors and Publishers of all Measures tending to interrupt the Public Peace and Tranquillity.

[Transmitted by Sir William Lemon, Bart. and Francis Gregor, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Portreeve, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Callington, truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under the present Constitution, founded on the wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Glorious revolution, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude for the late fresh Instance of your Majesty's

