

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 14. to Saturday August 18, 1792.

Whitehall, August 18.

THE following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, has been presented to the King by John William Anderson and Harvey Christian Combe, Esqrs. Sheriff of that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to join in the general Voice of the People, and to declare our hearty and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and to our happy Constitution, Civil and Religious, as established in this Kingdom. Permit us to return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your late gracious Proclamation, warning us against the mischievous Designs of ill-disposed Persons, who are endeavouring by wicked and seditious Writings, indoltriously dispersed through the Kingdom, to raise Jealousies and Discontents among the People, and inflame their Minds with Representations of imaginary Grievances at a Time when the Country, under the Blessing of Providence, is enjoying an unexampled State of Prosperity and Happiness.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Endeavours shall not be wanting, by every legal and constitutional Means, to discourage and prevent all Proceedings tending to produce Riots, Tumults, and Disorders, which are inconsistent with the Preservation of Public Liberty, and destructive of those invaluable Rights and Privileges we enjoy, and which can only be effectually secured to us by a due Obedience to the Laws, by a steady Adherence to and firm Support of those wise and wholesome Provisions made at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and further strengthened and confirmed to us by subsequent Acts of the Legislature. Convinced of the Excellence of our Constitution, we feel ourselves in a particular Manner bound to guard against all Attempts to disturb the Public Peace and Tranquillity of the Kingdom, which must, in the most forcible Manner, affect and injure this populous and commercial County, weaken the Credit and Importance of the Country with Foreign Nations, and lessen the Security and Happiness of the People. With these Sentiments we most heartily join in wishing your Majesty long to reign over a free and loyal People.

Signed, the 9th of August, 1792, by Order of the Meeting,

John Wm. Anderson,
Harvey Christian Combe, } Sheriff.

Whitehall, August 18.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of Lincoln, assembled at the Castle of Lincoln, at the Assizes held there the 4th of August, 1792.

WE, the Grand Jury of the County of Lincoln, do humbly intreat your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of these our solemn Declarations of sincere Affection to your Sacred Person, of profound Respect to the Dignity of your Crown, of just Regard to the Peace and good Order of your Government.

Selected from the Body of the County to a superior Share of those inestimable Functions which form the proud

[ Price One Shilling. ]

