THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dingwall, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to express our sincere Gratitude for every new Instance of your Majesty's Exertions towards the Maintenance of our happy Constitution, the Preservation of the Peace, and the promoting of the Prosperity of these Kingdoms. Sensible of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy, as Citizens of a free Country, we should behold with Abhorrence every Attempt to unhinge the System of our Government, as planned at the ever-memorable Revolution, and we should consider with Indignation any Writings which could possibly have this baneful Tendency. Feeling these Sentiments, it is with the utmost Pleasure we assure your Majesty that we and our People are entire Strangers to all such Views or Publications; and that, however ardently we do wish for the Correction of those Abuses which, in the general Imperfection of human Affairs, may have crept into our Constitution, and for the full Invigoration of every Principle of Liberty which is consistent with regular Government, we shall, by our publick Instructions and by our private Example, discourage any Approach towards Sedition; we shall earnestly inculcate every Degree of respectful Subordination to the Laws of the Land; and we shall sedulously cherish among our People habitual Veneration for the Principles of our Constitution, as established at the Glorious Revolution.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and a happy People; that you may lay down your Earthly Crown only to be exchanged for a Heavenly one; and that Almighty God may confer his Blessing on every Branch of your Family, are the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's affectionate Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dingwall.

Signed in our Name, at our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Daniel Rose, Moderator.

[ Transmitted by William Adam, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Ross. ]

Whitehall, August 29.

The King has been pleased to appoint William Douglas Brodie, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Malaga, in the Room of Mark Gregory, Esq; deceased.
