From Tuesday September 4. to Saturday September 8, 1792.

Whitehall, September 8.

THE following Addreses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addreses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, though long accustomed to your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Happiness of your People, cannot but be sensibly affected by the recent and most seasonable Instance of it, manifested in your late gracious Proclamation.

Happy in the Possession of the greatest Blessings, which Liberty and Peace can confer, we feel an Indignation, proportioned to the Happiness we enjoy, at the Attempts which have been made, by various seditious Practices, to undermine the Constitution on which those Blessings and that Happiness are founded, and by disseminating Publications, whose insidious Misrepresentations have for their Object to excite in your Majesty's faithful Subjects a Spirit of Discontent, Disaffection, and Sedition, and to weaken their Attachment to that admirable Form of Polity, that substantial and practicable Liberty which the glorious Revolution established, and the mild Government of our Princes of the Brunswick Line has endeared to us; Publications, whose false and delusive Principles are calculated to subvert all Order, Subordination and Law; to level all Distinctions in the State; to annihilate Establishment in the Church; and to destroy every Thing which can be valuable to us as Britons.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we are anxious to testify our most grateful Acknowledgements for the salutary Measure which your Majesty's Wisdom and Affection to your People has prompted you to adopt, and to present our Assurances that we shall exert our utmost Endeavours to co-operate with your Majesty's Wishes, and guard the Public Tranquillity, by discountenancing all seditious Practices and Writings, which may tend to diminish in the Minds of the People their Obedience to established Laws, and their Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Durham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, are anxious to express the grateful Sense which we entertain of the recent Proof which your Majesty has given of your paternal Care of your People, by issuing your late Proclamation.

We are thankful to a gracious Providence for being born under a Constitution unrivalled in the Blessings which, in it's present Form, it dispenses and secures to every Individual among it's Citizens: We cannot, therefore, but view with Astonishment and Abhorrence the mischievous Attempts of disaffected and insatuated Men, who, by the Dissemination of seditious Writings, calculated to mislead the Ignorant, have endeavoured to undermine that Fabric, which it has been the Work of Ages to erect.

[Price One Shilling.]

erect; and to level, at one Blow, the Throne, the Nobility, the Church, and the State of this happy Country.

These seditious Writings and criminal Designs we trust your Majesty's seasonable Admonition, seconded by the Wisdom of Parliament and the Union of a People, who know their Blessings, will effectually defeat. Incorporated as the Ecclesiastical Establishment of these Realms is with its Civil Polity; connected as we are with the State by all those Ties, which bind the other Members of the Community; partaking with them of those inestimable Enjoyments which Liberty, founded on legal Order and Subordination, insures; we feel a common Interest with them in discountenancing, as far as in us lies, every Measure which tends to alter or depreciate that System of Government, which the Revolution established, and which our Princes of the Brunswick Line have rendered so dear to us.

But while we share these Duties with our Fellow Subjects, there are others peculiar to ourselves. It is our Province (as Teachers of Religion and Ministers of Peace) to convince the World of the Utility of Establishments by their beneficial Effects. It is our Duty, and shall be our Ambition (as the best Return which we can make to our Country, and our Sovereign for Protection) to insinuate into the Minds of the People the true Grounds of Christian Liberty and National Happiness, in the Principles of Civil Obedience, of Public Order, and good Citizenship; to teach them to value the Blessings, which they possess under the best of Constitutions, administered by the best of Princes; and to guard them against those specious but pernicious Opinions, which, under the Pretence of removing speculative and imaginary Imperfections, would expose them and their Country to real and permanent Evils.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Sunderland, penetrated with a lively Sense of the superior Excellence of the Constitution of these Realms, and of the Peace and Prosperity we enjoy, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Expressions of our sincerest Attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

We have observed, with the deepest Concern, the late alarming Increase of Writings, seditious in their Spirit and Tendency, and calculated to sap the Foundations of all good Government, to subvert all Order and Subordination, to lessen the Public Reverence for the Laws and Constitution of these Realms, and by filling the Minds of the Public with unnecessary Fears, to give Occasion for infinite Disorder and Confusion.

We therefore beg Leave to offer our grateful Acknowledgments of your Majesty's paternal Care, in issuing the late Royal Proclamation for the Prevention of the further Publication and Increase of such Writings; and we trust that all Ranks of People in this, as in every other Part of your Majesty's Dominions, will unite in promoting the valuable Purposes of your Majesty's Proclamation, and that the Constitution of this Country will continue, as it has long been, the Glory and Happiness of this, and the Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Sunderland near the Sea, County of Durham, June 29, 1792.

[Transmitted by Rowland Burdon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Durham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the East Riding of Yorkshire and Town and County of Hull, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Sentiments of true Affection to your Royal Person, and of inviolable Attachment to our Constitution in Church and State, and to present to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for the very seasonable Instance of your vigilant Attention to the Welfare of your People, in issuing your Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications: Convinced that we now perfectly enjoy the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty, we cannot but feel Concern and Indignation when we see Opinions disseminated, not only subversive of our happy Constitution but incompatible with that Subordination which is essential to the very Existence of Civil Society.

We feel ourselves, as Ministers of the Gospel, peculiarly called upon to inculcate the Christian Principles of Obedience to the established Government, and of quiet and peaceable Conduct towards all Mankind.

And our Prayers will never be wanting, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People, and that the Crown of these Kingdoms may descend in unimpaired Lustre to your latest Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of our Archdeaconry, the 28th Day of August, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

[Transmitted by Dr. Waddilove, Dean of Ripon.]
