

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 8, to Tuesday September 11, 1792.

Whitehall, September 11.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy, of the Diocese of Chester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy, of the Diocese of Chester, beg Leave to offer unto your Majesty our sincere and unsolicited Thanks for the many and repeated Instances of your Majesty's paternal Care and Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and particularly for that recent and signal one, evinced in the seasonably issuing of your late most gracious Proclamation.

Sensible as we have at all Times been of the great Happiness and Security we derive from our excellent Constitution in Church and State, yet we have learned to fix an additional Value upon it from contrasting our present Situation with that of surrounding Nations.

With a Concern and Indignation, therefore, proportionate to the Sense of the Blessings we enjoy, have we beheld the late Attempts that have been made to disparage and undermine it, by Publications and Practices, calculated to excite unreasonable Discontent, mislead the Ignorant, and introduce Principles utterly subversive of all good Order and Government.

Such Principles and such Practices, as it is our Duty, so will it be our constant Endeavour to discountenance and counteract, as far as our Influence may extend; and especially by inculcating upon the Minds of the People committed to our Care, the Love of Peace and good Order, Obedience to the Laws, and a Veneration for that mild and equitable Form of Government, under which they are so eminently prosperous and happy.

We have only to add, that it is our earnest Wish and Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts, and to experience the Duty and Affection of a free, loyal, and grateful People.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Chester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the Anxiety your Majesty has ever expressed in promoting the real Good and Happiness of your People, and more especially for the late particular Instance of your paternal Care, conveyed to us by your Majesty's Royal Proclamation.

We also beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and to every Branch of your illustrious House, and that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support and defend that happy Constitution, both in Church and State, which, by the Blessing of Providence, we now enjoy under your gracious Protection; a Constitution admired by all good Subjects, and envied by the whole World.

[Transmitted by Charles Sturt, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Sutherland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Sutherland, beg Leave to express our warmest Satisfaction at the wise and salutary Measure which your Majesty has recently adopted for the Purpose of discouraging the wicked Attempts of the Enemies of the British Constitution. We are zealously attached to that Constitution, from a full Conviction

[Price Eight-pence.]

