Whitehall, September 15.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, humbly beg Leave to offer our most unfeigned Thanks for that Love and Affection your Majesty has ever shewn towards your People, which is sufficiently manifest from that constant paternal Care and Attention that your Majesty has at all Times paid, in pursuing every Measure that could possibly promote the true Interest and Happiness of all your Subjects: And more especially we desire to express our Gratitude for your Majesty's late most gracious Proclamation, issued so seasonably, at a Time when many Publications, pregnant with seditious Principles, to our utter Detestation, were distributed in many Parts of the Kingdom, tending to create Dissaffection in the Minds of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and seemingly with a View to subvert that glorious Constitution, which has so long and so justly been the Admiration, and even the Envy of surrounding Nations.

This, our happy Constitution, we shall always exert our utmost Power to maintain and support both in Church and State: In the Execution thereof we may ever hope for Success, so long as we shall be blest in having at our Head so good, so patriotic a King.

That your Majesty may for many Years continue, in perfect Health, to reign over these Realms; and that the same Liberty and Blessings, rendered to us under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, may be handed down to after Ages, under the Protection and Government of your Majesty's Royal

Progeny, is the most ardent Wish and Prayer of us, your Majesty's truly faithful and affectionate Subjects:
