Whitehall, September 29.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church, most humbly request your Royal Permission to approach the Throne with Assurance of that inviolable Affection and Duty with which we are animated towards your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we have the inexpressible Satisfaction to see the Members of our Communion enjoying the free Exercise of their Religious Worship, we trust we shall ever feel a lively Gratitude for so great a Blessing; and that they may continue to deserve the Favour they enjoy, we will not cease to impress their Minds with the purest Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Submission to the Laws.

Convinced as we are that the Peace and Prosperity of the British Empire depend entirely, under God, on the Preservation of our admirable Constitution, we beg Leave to acknowledge, with becoming Thankfulness, your Majesty's great Care and Attention to the Happiness of your People, so seasonably manifested in your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation. Deeply sensible of this Instance of your Majesty's paternal Goodness, we will not fail to use our best Endeavours to support that wise and equitable System of Government, which it is not more the Duty than it is the Interest of all your Majesty's Subjects to maintain.

That your Majesty may long live to sway the Sceptre over a loyal and affectionate People; and that the Constitution of these Kingdoms may be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Generation, through the Princes of your illustrious House, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Signed by us, the Bishops of the said Church, for ourselves and the Clergy of our Communion,
