

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 23, to Saturday October 27, 1792.

St. James's, October 27.

THURSDAY last being the Anniversary of the King's Accession to the Throne, when His Majesty entered into the Thirty-third Year of His Reign, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment His Majesty upon the Occasion. At One o'Clock the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other public Demonstrations of Joy in London and Westminster.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of October, 1792,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable John Earl Poulett to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, October 25.

This Day the Foreign Ministers hereafter mentioned had their first Private Audiences of Her Majesty.

The Baron Jacobi, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia:

And Thomas Pinckney, Esq; Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America:

To which they were respectively introduced by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Master of the Ceremonies.

HOPKINS, Tuesday the 16th Day of October, 1792, and in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, of Great Britain, &c.

RESOLVED,

THAT it having appeared to this Court that the Persons who apply for Certificates to enable them to export from this Kingdom Molten Silver or Bullion, are not sufficiently apprized that it is the express Duty of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of this City strictly to examine all such Persons, and to require them to prove their Molten Silver or Bullion upon Oath, as contained in the Act of the 7th and 8th of William the Third, Chap. 19.

That the following Clause of said Act be published in the London Gazette for the Information of all Persons whom it may concern.

Extract of the Act 7th and 8th of William III. Chap. 19. Sect. 6.

“ Be it enacted, that from and after the last Day of March, 1696, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall ship, or cause to be shipped, or put on Board any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, any Molten Silver or Bullion whatsoever, either in Bars, Ingots, Wedges, Cakes, Pinas, or any other Form whatsoever, unless a Certificate be first had and obtained from the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, Oath having been made before the said Court by the Owner or Owners of such Molten Silver or Bullion, and likewise by Two or more credible Witnesses, that the same Molten Silver and Bullion, and every Part and Parcel thereof, was and is Foreign Bullion, and that no Part thereof was, before the same was Molten, the Coin of this Realm, or Clippings thereof, nor Plate wrought within this Kingdom; which Oath the said Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, are authorized to administer, and to examine strictly all and every such Person as shall make such Oath concerning the Premises.”
