The Troops of the Allies will ſeparate from us in a few Days, to return to their reſpective Countries; and I ſhall uſe my utmoſt Exertions to ſend all the Regiments of this Army to their Stations in the Company's Territories, and to reduce both the Native Troops and the different Public Departments to the Peace Eſta bliſhment with as little Loſs of Time as may be poſſible.

To the Honorable Court of Directors for Affairs of the Honorable the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.

HONORABLE SIRS,

I Have the Honor to enclote a Copy of the Definitive Treaty which has been concluded with Tippoo Sultaan, conformably to the Tenor and Spirit of the Preliminary Articles which I tranſmitted to you by the laſt Diſpatch, with a Copy of the Schedule, which was annexed to the Treaty, containing the Names of the Diſtricts that have been ceded by Tippoo to the Allies.

You were informed by my Letter, dated the 4th Ultimo, that being aware that Tippoo would practice every poſſible Art to evade a ſtrict Execution of his Engagements, I had determined to maintain the Poſts that we occupied before Seringapatam until every Arrangement for carrying the Preliminary Articles of Peace into full Effect could be completed; and I had ſoon Reaſon to believe that none of my Precautions were ſuperfluous.

After ſending out, by his Revenue Officers, ſome Statements of his Revenues, that were evidently fabricated and incorrect, and which conſequently were rejected, he at laſt declared, that, owing to his having loſt a great Number of his Papers in Places that had been taken by the Allies, or in his Camp on the Night of the Action, it was not in his Power to give a regular authenticated Account of the Revenues of different Diſtricts of his Country, though he perſevered in aſſerting that, after deducting the Expences of Collection, they did not much exceed Two Crore.

A Statement, therefore, was formed from the beſt Materials in the Poſſeſſion of the Allies, which rated his Dominions at Two Crore and Sixty Lacs of net Revenue; and upon which it was propoſed, that the

Division

Division of his Country should be made according to the Terms of the Preliminary Articles; but, upon it's being produced, he positively objected to it's Correctness, offering, however, after some Discussions, to allow the Division to take Place upon the Ground that his net Revenue amounted to something above Two Crore and Thirty-seven Lacs; to which, with the entire Concurrence of Hurry Punt and Azeem ul Omrah, I judged it advisable to give my Assent.

Upon the Adjustment of this indispensable Preliminary Point, further Difficulties were started, by his objecting, with great Warmth, to cede some of the Districts which had been included by the Allies in the Selection of their respective Portions, and, above all others, his Repugnance to relinquish the Coorja Country, which I was determined to obtain for the Company, as being necessary to form a secure Barrier for our new Possessions on the Coast of Malabar against every Power above the Ghauts, appeared at one Time to be almost insurmountable.

At this Stage of the Negotiation the Allies were not only in Possession of his Two Sons as Hostages, but also of above Eleven Hundred Thousand Pounds of the Sum that he had agreed to pay, in ready Money, which I should have considered as sufficient Pledges from any other Man for the Performance of the Whole of the Preliminary Articles; but, faithless and violent as Tippoo's Character was known to be, I judged it incumbent upon me to be prepared to support by Force, if it should prove necessary, the Rights that we had acquired by the Preliminaries, and, with that View, I requested, in Addition to several other Measures, that Perferam Bhow would cross the Caveri and join General Abercromby, in order that we might be ready to act with Efficacy, and without Loss of Time, against Seringapatam, if a Renewal of Hostilities should become unavoidable; resolving, at the same Time, that the Armies should not quit the Positions that they occupied until the Articles of the Definitive Treaty should be arranged and actually signed.

As any material Interruption, and still more a total Breach in the Negotiation, would have been attended with great Inconvenience to our Affairs; I was relieved from much Anxiety when Tippoo, upon further Reflection, withdrew all his Objections, and consented, on the 16th Ultimo, to sign the Definitive Treaty; and the first Payment of One Crore and Sixty-five Lacs of Rupees being also completed in a few Days, Perferam Bhow repassed the River, and, after evacuating the Trenches and our Posts upon the Island, all the Confederate Forces began to move from Seringapatam on the 26th Ultimo. The Orders for the mutual Cession of Forts and Districts, conformable to the Treaty, having also been previously interchanged, I trust that in the Course of a few Weeks Tippoo will be in Possession of the Dominions that are left to him, and that the Armies of the Allies will have returned within the new Boundaries of their respective Countries.

It must, no doubt, be highly gratifying to you, that a War, into which we were forced by every Consideration of good Faith and sound Policy, has not only terminated in the Reduction of the Strength of a Neighbour of great Power, and of the most inordinate Ambition, but also in securing Acquisitions to ourselves, which, exclusive of their incalculable Value in Point of Situation, add considerably to your Revenues, and promise to open Sources of Commerce in Pepper, Cardamums, Teak, Sandal

Wood, &c. that may be looked upon as of great Importance both to the Company and to the Nation.

By the Statement of Tippoo's Revenues, upon which it was finally agreed by all Parties that his Country should be divided according to the Terms of the Preliminary Articles, the Company's Portion amounted to something above Thirty-nine Lacs and a Half of Rupees of net Revenue; and by an Inspection of the General Map you will readily perceive, that although, in order to reduce the Company's Share to that Sum, I was obliged to relinquish a few small Districts on the Top of the Ghauts, that properly belong to the Baramaul, but which are not necessary for the Security of our Frontier, I have availed myself of our Right of Selection by demanding and obtaining for the Company's Portion, Countries, that are both strong in themselves, and peculiarly well calculated to form a Barrier to your ancient Possessions.

The Districts ceded to us on the Coast of Malabar consist of the Whole of the Tract of Country below the Ghauts, laying between Travencore and the Kaway River, which is our Northern Boundary; and they are so fortunately situated, that it will be difficult, if not impossible, for Tippoo, or any future Sovereign of Mysore, to disturb them.

Palicautcherry commands the only Road by which an Army can approach them from the Carnatic Side; the only Passes that lead into them from the Mysore Country, viz. the Tambercherry and Pondicherrum Passes, are, from their belonging to our Tributaries, in Reality, in our own Possession; and the Northern Frontier is, from the Ruggedness of the Country, and from it's being intersected with a Number of deep Ravines and several considerable Rivers, exceedingly inaccessible.

Dindigul constitutes a substantial Protection to the Southern Provinces; and by the Acquisition of the Baramaul, and of the Country, which, though composed of several different Districts, is commonly called the Salem Country, which gives us the Command of all the Passes of the Ghauts to the Northward of the Caveri, we have obtained an effectual Barrier to the Carnatic against all future Invasions from the Westward; and, exclusive of the principal Forts of Sankerydroog, Namcool, Attoor, Kistnagherry, and Ryacotta, which no Power in India could take from us, and which an invading Army could not pass without hazarding the Loss of it's Supplies, there are a Number of smaller Forts in those Districts that, in case of a temporary Irruption of a Corps of Cavalry, would be capable of affording great Protection to the Persons and Property of the Inhabitants.

Had the Extent of our Share of the Cessions made by Tippoo admitted of it, I should have had great Satisfaction in adding the Country of Coimbatore to the Company's other Possessions, principally for the Purpose of depriving the Mysore Power of all Footing below the Ghauts, on the Carnatic Side: But the Disappointment is of the less Consequence as it is a defenceless open Country, which, in case of a future Rupture, nothing less than Tippoo's whole Force could attempt to defend against us, and from which he could not, without the greatest Difficulty and Danger, venture to invade the Carnatic.

A Pass, called the Coveriporam Pass, is marked upon some of the Sketches of that Part of the Country; but as it does not appear that Tippoo, or his Father, ever brought Guns down that Pass, there is no good Reason to suppose that it is at present, or that it could could easily be made practicable for an Army; and having lately had Occasion to order a Detachment to ascend the Guzzlehatty Pass, we have had an Opportunity to ascertain that it is, of all the Passes leading into the Carnatic, by much the most steep and difficult.

The Nature, therefore, of the Pass by which his Artillery and Stores must come from Mysore, would prove no inconsiderable Obstacle to Tippoo in forming a Design against the Carnatic from that Quarter; and, as I trust that he could neither take Din-digul, Trichinopoly, Tanjore, Sankerydroog, or Namcul, which are our Frontier Forts on that Side, I look upon it to be almost impossible that he, or any of his Successors, will venture to pass the Coleroon with an Army into the Center of the Carnatic, leaving their Supplies and Communications of all Kinds exposed to be attacked and interrupted by the Garrisons of the Places that I have mentioned, supported by Bodies of Troops that might be stationed for the Purpose under their Cover and Protection.

I am convinced that Sir Charles Oakley and General Abercromby will select the most capable and trust-worthy of your Servants to manage the newly acquired Territories; and General Abercromby agreed so perfectly with me that it was of the utmost Importance for the National Character, and for the Interest of the Company, that we should commence our Government of the Countries on the Coast of Malabar upon a good Plan, that it was concerted between us, that it would be most prudent, before we divided them finally into Districts, to appoint Commissioners to make a temporary Settlement with all the Chiefs for this Season, and then to proceed upon an active and earnest Investigation of the Amount of Revenue that those Acquisitions are capable of paying, the Extent of the different Articles of Commerce, the Nature of the Tenures of the Rajahs or other Chiefs, and the Classes and Numbers of the Inhabitants, in order that the Supreme Government may be enabled from their Reports, and the Observations and Suggestions of the Government of Bombay, to propose a System for the future Management of that Country, which may include Rules for the Conduct of the Revenue and Commercial Departments, and, above all, for a strict and impartial Administration of Justice: And, as many of the Bengal Servants have had great Experience in conducting the internal Business of extensive Indian Provinces, it is my Intention to depute Two of those in whom I can place particular Confidence, as soon as the Change of the Monsoon will render it practicable, to join Two Commissioners that General Abercromby will, at my Recommendation, appoint, immediately to commence upon the Undertaking that I have described, and in framing the Report that will be expected from them.

That Coast has been in a State of great Distraction and Confusion since the Time that Tippoo's Troops, and the Officers of his Government, were driven out of it; the Two great and inimical Classes of the People, the Nairs and Moplas; being almost at open War with each other, and great Dissentions about Boundaries, and revived old Claims prevailing amongst the Nair Rajahs themselves; but as General Abercromby will immediately, upon descending the Ghauts, detach Troops into the different Districts, I hope that I shall soon hear that Tranquillity has been restored, and the Company's Authority completely established throughout all these Countries.

I shall defer giving a final Opinion respecting the Military Establishment that will be necessary in future, until I can be more minutely informed than I am at present of the Condition of the Forts, and the internal State of the Countries that we have acquired; but I am much inclined to believe that the whole of the Augmentation in the Native Troops, that was made at the Commencement of the War, may be reduced with the utmost Safety.

I am at present busily occupied in sending the heavy Artillery, Stores, Sick, &c. &c. down the Ghauts, in order to enable me to evacuate the Forts that are to be restored to Tippoo; and although I shall now have it almost daily in my Power to discharge some of the Public Servants and Bullocks, I shall not be able to reduce the Departments completely to the Peace Establishment, until the Arrival of the Troops at the Cantonments that will be allotted for them in our own Territories: But it must give you very great Satisfaction to hear that there neither is at present, nor will be at their Arrival in Quarters, One single Rupee of Arrears due to the Troops, or to any of the Public Departments, and that the Accounts of all Descriptions of Military Expenditure are so closely brought up, that I can at present see no good Reason to prevent the Three Presidencies from making up, in the Course of the next Six Months at farthest, distinct Statements of the Whole of the extraordinary Expences that have been incurred by the War.

A small extra Expence must be continued to some of the Bombay Troops that will be obliged to remain in Huts, to be made by themselves, during the next Rains, on the Coast of Malabar; and the Bengal Native Troops must also draw Field Allowances until they return to their Cantonments in Bengal, which cannot happen before January next; but both these Articles may be estimated with sufficient Correctness to be introduced in the general Statements of extraordinary Expence.

Perferam Bhow, with the Corps under his immediate Command, proceeded directly from Seringapatam towards his own Country, and Hurry Punt, and the Nizam's Son and Minister, will separate from this Army in a few Days. General Abercromby commenced his March to the Coast of Malabar on the 26th Ultimo, and was, on the same Day, joined by Captain Little's Detachment, which had only been engaged to serve with the Maratta Army during the War.

I have the Honor to be, with great Respect,

Honorable Sirs,

Your most obedient, and

most humble Servant,

CORNWALLIS.

Camp in Mysore, April 5, 1792.

P. S. Since the above Letter was written, Captain Reynolds has, to my great Satisfaction, been able to finish the Sketch, that accompanies this Dispatch, of the Whole of the Countries that have been ceded by Tippoo to the Allies respectively, excepting the District of Soondoan, which belongs to the Portion that fell to the Marattas, but of the Extent and Position of which it has not been in his Power to obtain precise Information.

Tippoo's Country having been divided according to its Revenue and not its Extent, it will be obvious to you that the Nizam and the Marattas could not, in the highly cultivated and fertile Countries in which their Portions were claimed, receive the same Number of square Miles that fell to the Company, as in our Portion the Coorga Country is included, which pays only a small and limited Tribute; and there are considerable Tracts of hilly and barren Ground in several of our other Districts; and, for similar Reasons, the Division left to Tippoo greatly exceeds, in the Number of square Miles, the Whole of that which was ceded to the Allies; as the rugged and unproductive Countries of Myfore and Chittledroog constitute the principal Portion of the Dominions that remain in his Possession.

To the Honorable Court of Directors for Affairs of the Honorable the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies.

HONORABLE SIRs,

HAVING observed, since the Arrival of the Nottinghamian, that a Letter of mine to Sir Charles Oakeley has been published, in which I mention to him, that, in Addition to the Money that would be required to supply our own Wants, I should have Occasion for Twelve Lacks of Rupees to lend to the Marattas; and having some Doubts whether the official Papers that will be transmitted to you this Season from Bombay will clearly explain the Nature of that Loan, I have thought that it may be satisfactory to you to know, by this Opportunity, that it was merely an Advance of so much Money, to be repaid by the Peshwa.

When Hurry Punt and Perferam Bhow consented to keep the Field during the Rains, and to assist me in supporting our Communications and in maintaining Possession of a large Tract of the Enemy's Country, they stated to me their Apprehensions, that, on Account of the great Distance from Poona, they might, unless assisted, suffer great Distress from Want of Money to pay their Troops; and, in order to obviate all Difficulties on their Part, I readily promised to furnish the above mentioned Twelve Lacks, for Bills to be drawn by Hurry Punt upon the Peshwa, at the current Rate of Exchange between Madras and Bombay, and made payable to the Bombay Government at Bombay.

The Money was accordingly advanced to Hurry Punt at different Times, in the Course of a few Months after the Arrival of the Confederate Armies in the Neighbourhood of Bangalore; and Bills upon the Peshwa were regularly granted for each Payment at the Rate of Exchange which was declared at Madras to be then current between the Two Places.

I could, without Unfairness, have made additional Charges against them for the Expence of transporting the Money from Madras to the Army, and for Interest during the Time that it was upon the Road; but it appeared to me that those Articles were of too trifling a Nature to be introduced in a Transaction between Two States; and, whilst it was perfectly suitable to us to make a Remittance to Bombay through that Channel, I had the Pleasure, at an insignificant Expence to the Company, to lay the Marattas under what they considered to be a very great Obligation.

I have the Honor to be, with great Respect,

Honorable Sirs,

Your most obedient and most humble Servant,

CORNWALLIS.

Extract of a Letter from the Governor and Council of Fort St. George, in their Political Department, to the Court of Directors, dated May 25, 1792.

WE have the Pleasure to inform your Honorable Court, that all the Forts ceded to the Company by the late Definitive Treaty of Peace with Tippoo Sultaun, in the Baramhau and Salem Countries, have been delivered up, and that we have sent Instructions to Major Cuppage (at the Desire of Lord Cornwallis) to return to the Carnatic, with the present Garrison of Palicautcherry, as soon as the Troops sent by General Abercromby to take Possession of the Fort, shall arrive at that Place. Orders have been since given by his Lordship for breaking up the Detachment.

At the Recommendation of Lord Cornwallis we have issued a Proclamation regarding the Renewal of a Commercial Intercourse between the Carnatic and Myfore Countries; and directing that Mercians of all Descriptions belonging to the Myfore Country be henceforward permitted to enter the Carnatic, and to carry on their Dealings with this Settlement, or with any Part of the Territory of the Company or their Allies, under the same Privileges which they enjoyed before the late War.

General Post-Office, November 3, 1792.

A Plan having been strongly recommended by the Governors and other Persons of Consideration residing in the Leeward Islands, as well as by the West India Merchants and Planters residing in London, for the Improvement of their Correspondence by employing Two Schooners to convey the Mails through those Islands, instead of One as at present, the Post-Master General have consented to make a Trial of it for Six Months:

Notice is therefore hereby given, that when the Jamaica Packet, with the Mails from hence of the First Wednesday in the Month, arrives at Barbadoes, One of the Schooners will proceed from thence, with the Leeward Island Mails as at present, for St. Vincent's, Grenada, Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis and St. Kitt's; where she will leave the Mail for Tortola to wait the Arrival of the Leeward Island Packet with the Mails of the Third Wednesday in the Month from England.

When the Second, or Leeward Island Packet, arrives at Barbadoes, the other Schooner will take the Mails for Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis and St. Kitt's; and, after staying Forty-eight Hours for Answers at each Island (excepting at Nevis and St. Kitt's) will return to Barbadoes, whilst the Packet will proceed to St. Vincent's and Grenada, and, instead of calling at Dominica, Antigua and Montserrat, as at present, will go directly to Nevis and St. Kitt's, and from thence to Tortola, and then return to Falmouth.

It is calculated that, by the Packet and Schooner each taking a different Course during the same Time till they meet at Nevis, instead of the Packet performing the whole Voyage, will save Thirteen Days in every Voyage.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Secy
