Whitehall, November 3.

THE Letters, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, were received on Thursday last by the Manſhip, one of the Company's Ships.

Camp in Myſore, April 5, 1792.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to encloſe a Copy of the Definitive Treaty* which has been concluded between the Three Confederate Powers and Tippoo Sulthan, accompanied with a Schedule* of the Names of the Diſtricts that have been ceded by that Prince to the Allies reſpectively, to be laid before His Maſteſty.

I think it unnecessary to trouble you with a Repetition of the Contents of my Diſpatch of this Date to the Court of Directors, which will come officially into your Hands: But I requeſt that you will be pleaſed to communicate to His Maſteſty the Account contained in that Diſpatch, of the Circumſtances that occurred between the Signature of the Preliminary Articles and the Concluſion of the Definitive Treaty, and the Deſcription that I have given of the Countries that have been ceded to the Company,

The Troops of the Allies will ſeparate from us in a few Days, to return to their reſpective Countries; and I ſhall uſe my utmoſt Exertions to ſend all the Regiments of this Army to their Stations in the Company's Territories, and to reduce both the Native Troops and the different Public Departments to the Peace Eſta bliſhment with as little Loſs of Time as may be poſſible.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

To the Honorable Court of Directors for Affairs of the Honorable the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.

HONORABLE SIRS,

I Have the Honor to encloſe a Copy of the Definitive Treaty which has been concluded with Tippoo Sulthan, conformably to the Tenor and Spirit of the Preliminary Articles which I tranſmitted to you by the laſt Diſpatch, with a Copy of the Schedule, which was annexed to the Treaty, containing the Names of the Diſtricts that have been ceded by Tippoo to the Allies.

You were informed by my Letter, dated the 4th Ultimo, that being aware that Tippoo would practice every poſſible Art to evade a ſtrict Execution of his Engagements, I had determined to maintain the Poſts that we occupied before Seringapatam until every Arrangement for carrying the Preliminary Articles of Peace into full Effect could be completed; and I had ſoon Reaſon to believe that none of my Precautions were ſuperfluous.

After ſending out, by his Revenue Officers, ſome Statements of his Revenues, that were evidently fabricated and incorrect, and which conſequently were rejected, he at laſt declared, that, owing to his having loſt a great Number of his Papers in Places that had been taken by the Allies, or in his Camp on the Night of the Action, it was not in his Power to give a regular authenticated Account of the Revenues of different Diſtricts of his Country, though he perſeſvered in aſſerting that, after deducting the Expences of Collection, they did not much exceed Two Crore.

A Statement, therefore, was formed from the beſt Materials in the Poſſeſſion of the Allies, which rated his Dominions at Two Crore and Sixty Lacs of net Revenue; and upon which it was propoſed, that the
