AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th of November, 1792,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no Person or Persons whatever shall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, until the 1st Day of March, 1793, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be loaded or laid on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Wheat or Wheat Flour.—His Majesty nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and doth hereby order, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation of any Foreign Wheat or Wheat Flour, which shall have been imported into this Kingdom, and warehoused in the Manner and upon the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported;" nor to prohibit the carrying Coastwise, or the carrying out and exporting of Wheat and Whitehall, November 20.

THE following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale having been transmitted by the Lord Advocate of Scotland to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale, embrace this first Opportunity of our stated Meeting to approach your Majesty's Throne with sincere Expressions of our our Gratitude for that paternal Affection and Wisdom displayed in your Royal Proclamation for suppressing those seditious Writings and criminal Correspondencies, which tend to the Subversion of all regular Government.

It gives us great Pleasure to observe that this well-timed Exertion of your Royal Authority has been received in every Quarter of the Kingdom with such general Satisfaction, and been supported by the Voice of a loyal and affectionate People.

At a Period when your Majesty's Subjects are in the Possession of the highest Blessings which Mankind can enjoy under Government, and distinguished by an uncommon Degree of National Prosperity, we cannot, without Indignation, behold the Attempts of those who disturb the Public Tranquillity, by infusing into the Minds of the People an ill-founded Jealousy of that wise and happy Constitution with which we are blessed, by holding forth to them ideal Grievances, and aiming at dangerous Innovations, which, under Pretence of reforming, tend to overturn the State.

It has always hitherto been our Care to inculcate on the People who are under our Charge Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and a just Veneration for that excellent Constitution, which gives the fullest Security to our Religious and Civil Rights. In a Season when the Spirit of Faction has gone forth, we trust that we shall not be found wanting in our zealous Exertions to promote the same important Ends, and to discountenance every Measure which may have a Tendency to disturb the Peace and good Order of the Public.

That your Majesty, may long continue to reign with Prosperity and Peace, blest and protected by the Almighty, beloved by your Subjects, and respected by all surrounding Nations, are, and shall ever be, the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.

Signed in our Presence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by George Hamilton, Moderator.
