By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of Our Reign, intituled, "An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England," it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for Us, in the Cases and in Manner therein mentioned, the Occasion being first declared in Council and notified by Proclamation, if no Parliament shall be then sitting, to order and direct the Drawing out and Embodying of Our Militia Forces, or any Part thereof: And whereas We have received Information, that in Breach of the Laws, and notwithstanding Our Royal Proclamation of the Twenty-first Day of May last, the utmost Industry is still employed by evil-disposed Persons within this Kingdom, acting in Concert with Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to subvert the Laws and established Constitution of this Realm, and to destroy all Order and Government therein; and that a Spirit of Tumult and Disorder, thereby excited, has lately shewn itself in Acts of Riot and Insurrection. And whereas, under the present Circumstances, it is more particularly necessary, that, for the immediate Suppression of such Attempts, some Addition should be made, as the Exigency of the Case may require, to the Force which may be in Readiness to act for the Support of the Civil Magistrate; We therefore, being determined to exert the Powers vested in Us by Law for the Protection of the Persons, Liberties and Properties of Our faithful Subjects, and fully relying on their Zeal and Attachment to Our Person and Government, and to the happy Constitution established in these Kingdoms, have thought fit to declare in Our Council Our Royal Intention, for the Causes and on the Occasion aforesaid, to draw out and embody such Part of Our Militia Forces as may more immediately enable Us to provide for the said important Objects. And We do hereby, in pursuance of the said recited Act, notify to all Our loving Subjects Our said Intention, and the Causes and Occasion thereof.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the First Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and in the Thirty-third Year of Our Reign.

[Price One Shilling.]

That whenever We shall cause the Militia to be drawn out and embodied, on the Occasions and in the Manner therein mentioned, if the Parliament shall then be separated by such Adjournment or Prorogation as will not expire within Fourteen Days, We may and shall issue Our Proclamation for the Meeting of the Parliament within Fourteen Days; and the Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon such Day as shall be appointed by such Proclamation, and continue to sit and act in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if it had stood adjourned or prorogued to the same Day: And whereas We have thought fit, in pursuance of the said Act, this Day to declare in Our Council, certain Causes and Occasions moving Us to order and direct, that such Part of Our Militia Forces, as may more immediately enable Us to provide for the important Objects therein mentioned, should be drawn out and embodied: And whereas, in pursuance of the said recited Act, We have thought fit on this Day to issue Our Royal Proclamation, notifying the Causes and Occasions so declared in Council as aforesaid: And whereas Our Parliament now stands prorogued to Thursday the Third Day of January next; We therefore, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That Our said Parliament shall, on Thursday the Thirteenth Day of this instant December, be held for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs.
