By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of Our Reign, intituled, "An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England," it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for Us, in the Cases and in Manner therein mentioned, the Occasion being first declared in Council and notified by Proclamation, if no Parliament shall be then sitting, to order and direct the Drawing out and Embodying of Our Militia Forces, or any Part thereof: And whereas We have received Information, that in Breach of the Laws, and notwithstanding Our Royal Proclamation of the Twenty-first Day of May last, the utmost Industry is still employed by evil-disposed Persons within this Kingdom, acting in Concert with Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to subvert the Laws and established Constitution of this Realm, and to destroy all Order and Government therein; and that a Spirit of Tumult and Disorder, thereby excited, has lately shewn itself in Acts of Riot and Insurrection. And whereas, under the present Circumstances, it is more particularly necessary, that, for the immediate Suppression of such Attempts, some Addition should be made, as the Exigency of the Case may require, to the Force which may be in Readiness to act for the Support of the Civil Magistrate; We therefore, being determined to exert the Powers vested in Us by Law for the Protection of the Persons, Liberties and Properties of Our faithful Subjects, and fully relying on their Zeal and Attachment to Our Person and Government, and to the happy Constitution established in these Kingdoms, have thought fit to declare in Our Council Our Royal Intention, for the Causes and on the Occasion aforesaid, to draw out and embody such Part of Our Militia Forces as may more immediately enable Us to provide for the said important Objects. And We do hereby, in pursuance of the said recited Act, notify to all Our loving Subjects Our said Intention, and the Causes and Occasion thereof.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the First Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and in the Thirty-third Year of Our Reign.
