HIS Da, His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HAVING judged it necessary to embody a Part of the Militia of this Kingdom, I have, in purfuance of the Provisions of the Law, called you together within the Time limited for that Purpose; and it is, on every Account, a great Satisfaction to Me to meet you in Pariament at this Conjuncture.

I should have been happy if I could have announced to you the facure and undisturbed Continuance of all the Bleffings which My Subjects have derived from a State of Tranquillity; but Events have recently occurred which require Our united Vigilance and Extrion in order to preserve the Advantages which We have hitherto enjoyed.

The feditious Practices, which had been in a great Measure checked by your firm and explicit Declaration in the last Session, and by the general Concurrence of My People in the same Sentiments, have of Inte been more openly renewed, and with encreased Activity. A Spirit of Tumult and Disorder (the natural Consequence of such Practices) has shewn itself in Acts of Riot and Insurrection, which required the Interposition of a Military Force in Support of the Civil Magistrate.—The Industry employed to excite Discontent, on various Pretexts and in different Parts of the Kingdom, has appeared to proceed from a Design to attempt the Destruction of Our happy Constitution, and the Subversion of all Order and Government; and this Design has evidently been pursued in Connection and Concert with Persons in Foreign Countries

Persons in Foreign Countries.

I have carefully observed a strict Neutrality in the present War on the Continent, and have uniformly abstained from any Interference.

abstained from any Interference with respect to the internal Affairs of France; but it is impossible for Me to see, without the most ferious Uneasiness, the strong and increasing Indications which have appeared there of an Intention to excite Disturbances in other Countries, to difregard the Rights of Neutral Nations, and to purfue Views of Conquest and Aggrandizement, as well as to adopt towards My Allies the States General (who have observed the same Neutrality with Myfelf) Measures which are neitherconformable to the Law of Nations, nor to the positive Stipulations of existing Treaties. Under all these Circumstances, I have felt it my indispensable Duty to have Recourse to those Means of Prevention and internal Defence with which I am entrusted by Law; and I have also thought it right to take Steps for making some Augmentation of My Naval and Military Force, being perfuaded that these Exertions are necessary in the present State of Affairs, and are best calculated both to maintain internal Tranquillity, and to render a firm and temperate Conduct effectual for preserving the Blessings of Peace.

Nothing will be neglected on My Part that can contribute to that important Object, confidently with the Security of My Kingdoms, and with the faithful Performance of Engagements, which We are bound equally by Interest and Honour to fulfil.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Estimates for the ensuing Year to be laid before you; and I have no Doubt that you will be ready to make a due Provision for the several Branches of the Public Service.

You will certainly join with Me in lamenting any Necessity for extraordinary Expences, which may for a Time prevent the Application of additional Sums, beyond those which are already annually appropriated, to the Reduction of the Public Debt, or retard the Relief which My Subjects might have derived from a further Diminution of Taxes: But I am consident you will feel that those great Ends will ultimately be best promoted by such Exertions as are necessary for Our present and suture Sasety and Tranquillity; and it is a great Consolation to Me to restect, that you will find ample Resources for effectually destraying the Expence of vigorous Preparations, from the Excess of the actual Revenue beyond the ordinary Expenditure.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have great Pleasure in acquainting you, that the brilliant Successes of the British Arms in India, under the able Conduct of the Marquess Cornwallis, have led to the Termination of the War by an advantageous and honourable Peace, the Terms of which are peculiarly satisfactory to Me, from their Tendency to secure the suture Tranquillity of the British Dominions in that Part of the World.

Your Attention will now naturally be directed to the taking such Measures for the suture Government of those valuable Possessions, as shall appear, from Experience and full Consideration, most likely to provide for their internal Prosperity, and to secure the important Advantages which may be derived from thence to the Commerce and Revenue of this Country.

I am perfuaded that it will be the Object of your immediate Confideration to adopt fuch Measures as may be necessary, under the present Circumstances, for enforcing Obedience to the Laws, and for repressing every Attempt to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of these Kingdoms.

You will be fensible how much depends on the Result of your Deliberations; and your uniform Conduct is the best Pledge that nothing will be wanting on your Part which can contribute to the present Security and permanent Advantage of the Country.

I retain a deep and unalterable Sense of the repeated Proofs which I have received of your cordial and affectionate Attachment to Me; and I place an entire Reliance on the Continuance of those Sentiments, as well as on your firm Determination to defend and maintain that Conflitution, which has following protected the Liberties and promoted the Happinels of every Class of My Subjects.

In endeavouring to preferve and to transmit to Posterity the inestimable Blessings which, under the Favour of Providence, you have yourselves experienced, you may be assured of My zealous and cordial Co-operation; and Gur joint Efforts will. I doubt not, be rendered completely effectual, by the decided Support of a Free and Loyal People.
