Whitehall, December 18.

The following Address of the Moderator and Ministers of the Presbytery of Strathbogie having been transmitted by the Reverend Mr. Milne, to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Moderator and Ministers of the Presbytery of Strathbogie, met in Presbytery, beg Leave, on the present Occasion, to approach your Majesty, to express our Loyalty and our sacred Regard to those Principles which seated your Illustrious House on the Throne of Britain.

Attached as we are to our happy Constitution, we behold with Abhorrence every Attempt which is made to infuse Jealousy and Discontent into the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and, under the specious Name of Liberty, to introduce Anarchy and Confusion.

As Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, it shall be our Business, as it is our Duty, to cherish in those under our Care a Spirit of Piety, to inculcate a Love of of Pesce and Order, and to lead them to practise that Righteousness which alone exalteth a Nation.

It is our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, that your Majesty may reign long in the Hearts of a free People; and that to the latest Ages, under your Posterity, this happy Island may continue to be the Admiration of the World.

Signed, in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, this 5th Day of December, 1792, at Huntly, by

James Milne, Moderator.

AT a General Court of the Worshipful COMPANY of IRONMONGERS, held at their Hall the 12th of December, 1792,

It was resolved,

That at this extraordinary Crisis, when all Orders and Ranks of Men seem particularly called upon to declare their Sentiments openly as to the Constitution and Government of the Country; it must appear more especially necessary that those, whose Situation makes a component and not the least interested Part thereof, should step forward: Therefore

We, the Master, Wardens and Livery of the Company of Ironmongers, do thus publicly avow, that we most cordially and sincerely concur with the Merchants, Bankers, and other Inhabitants of this City of London, in the Declaration made and carried at the most numerous and respectable Meeting that was ever known to have assembled together, held at Merchant Taylors Hall on the 5th Instant.

And we do hereby further declare, that we are resolved individually to co-operate with our Fellow Citizens in resisting every Attempt that has either a Tendency to foment Sedition or to change the Constitution and Government of these Realms, as by Law established.

LLOYD'S COFFEE-HOUSE.

December 12, 1792.

AT a numerous Meeting of the Subscribers to this Coffee-House, held this Day,

SAMUEL BEACHCROFT, Esq; in the Chair.

The following DECLARATION was moved and unanimously approved of:

We, the Underwriters and others, Subscribers to this Coffee-House, engaged in the Transaction of Insurances, which are the Strength and Support of Trade, sensible of the mischievous Tendency of the seditious Doctrines which have been lately disseminated, being deeply impressed with the Blessings which are diffused through this Commercial Nation, feel it a Duty incumbent on us at this particular Period to declare our Regard for, our Approbation of, and our Reliance on, the Constitution of Great Britain, as established at the Revolution of 1688, in a Government by King, Lords and Commons, a Form of Union and Mode of Government under which Liberty reigns, Industry thrives, and the Arts, Manufactures and Navigation of the Realm extend themselves to every Quarter of the Globe, with a Success beyond all former Example.

That to subvert a Constitution thus beneficial to the Community, which has stood the Test of Ages, has been the Theme of Approbation Abroad, and of heartfelt Exultation at Home, would be rashly to dismiss Experience, and throw away the substantial Good of which the Country is in firm Possession, would lead to Anarchy and Disorder, interrupt Industry, create Distress, destroy National Faith, and annihilate in the Hearts of Foreigners, as well as Natives, their present Confidence in the Personal Property and Individual Security, by which Agriculture, Manufactures and Commerce are encouraged and supported.

And it was further resolved,

That the above Declaration be prepared by To-morrow, to receive the Signatures of the Gentlemen present, and such other Subscribers to this Coffee-House as may approve thereof.

Resolved,

That the following Gentlemen be appointed a Committee to attend this Business.

Samuel Beachcroft, Esq;
William Lushington, Esq;	Godfrey Thornton, Esq;
Robert Hunter, Esq;	John Julius Angustein, Esq;
Thomas Parry, Esq;	William Pitt, Esq;
John Bickwood, Esq;	John Falked, Esq;

Resolved unanimously,

That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to Samuel Beach-croft, Esq; for his upright and impartial Conduct as Chairman.

A Motion for an Adjournment being made, it was unanimously agreed to.

SAMUEL BEACHCROFT, Chairman.

BASSISHAW WARD.

AT a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Inhabitants of this Ward, in the Vestry-Room, on Thursday December the 13th, 1792, convened by public Notice,

Sir WILLIAM PLOMER,
 Alderman of this Ward, in the Chair,

The following DECLARATION was read:

That this Meeting, being highly sensible of the great Blessings of our present happy Constitution of King, Lords, and Commons,

mons, established by the glorious Revolution in 1688, which secures to the Subject the full Enjoyment of Liberty and Property, equally protected by Law from the Oppression of Despotism and the Depredations of Anarchy, conceive it our Duty to declare, that we will pay due Obedience to the Laws, and support the Civil Magistrate in carrying them into Execution against all Disturbers of the Public Peace.

And it appearing to this Meeting that extraordinary Efforts have lately been made by wicked and designing Men, in circulating mischievous and seditious Publications for promoting illegal Meetings, with a Design to overturn the Government of these Kingdoms, which may ultimately tend to destroy the Bonds of Society, and not only materially injure the labouring Part of our Fellow Subjects, but greatly check the Manufactures, Navigation, and Commerce of this Country, which now flourish beyond any former Period :

Resolved unanimously,
That this Meeting do approve of the said Declaration.

Resolved unanimously,
That we shall be ready on every Occasion to co-operate with our Fellow Citizens to support the Magistrates of this City in their Endeavours to suppress Riots and Tumults, and for bringing the Promoters of them to legal Punishment.

Resolved unanimously,
That the Constables of this Ward be ordered to take into Custody any Person or Persons that shall be seen to distribute Hand-Bills, or posting up any Paper of a seditious Tendency, or giving away any Pamphlet of the like Nature, within the said Ward, and to carry such Person or Persons before some Magistrate of this City, to be dealt with according to Law.

Resolved unanimously,
That a Committee be appointed to carry the Resolutions into Effect, and to act on every Occasion as may seem most conducive to the Preservation of Peace and good Order in this Ward. And that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee, viz.

Sir William Plomer,

Mr. Deputy Leekey,	Mr. Clark,

That the above Declaration and Resolutions be signed by the Chairman, and published in such of the Morning and Evening Papers as the Committee shall direct ; and that a sufficient Number of Copies thereof be printed and delivered to every Householder of this Ward.
