As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms; the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesty King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months; and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Judiciary, or the Circuit, there.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25 and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Linen, Steel or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above mentioned, in the Case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

London, December 21, 1792.

AT a numerous and respectable Meeting of the WEST INDIA PLANTERS and MERCHANTS, assembled by Public Advertisement at the London Tavern, for the Purpose of considering of a DECLARATION expressive of their Attachment to the CONSTITUTION of GREAT BRITAIN,

JOHN ELLIS, Esq; in the Chair.

A Recognition, addressed to Lord Penrhyn (as established Chairman of this Body) and his Lordship's Answer approving of and authorizing the summoning a Meeting for the said Purpose, and regretting his unavoidable Absence, being read,

Resolved unanimously,

That it is expedient at this Time to declare the Sentiments of this Meeting, in Support of the Constitution of this Country.

The following RESOLUTIONS were then put and carried unanimously,

1. That having observed, with painful Concern, that Opinions, tending to loosen the Bonds of well ordered Society, destructive of Property, subversive of good Government, inimical to true Liberty, and finally most injurious to those Classes of Men whose Understandings they are chiefly calculated to mislead, have, with mischievous Diligence, been circulated in every Part of this Kingdom and its Colonies, we feel it our Duty, at this Time, to declare our firm Attachment to the established Constitution of Great Britain, and a Government by King, Lords and Commons.

2. That under a Constitution so wisely framed for the general Good of an extensive Empire, and by virtue of that Bond of Union which connects the West India Colonies with the Mother Country, the Prosperity of those Colonies has been hitherto progressive, and with it have been increased the Population and Industry of the Mother Country; from their reciprocal Inter-course has, in a considerable Degree, been derived the flourishing State of the Commerce, Manufactures and Navigation of Great Britain, influencing, through their immediate or remoter Channels, the Wealth and Comfort of every Description of its Inhabitants.

3. That, with zealous and steady Fidelity, we will study to preserve this Bond of Union unbroken: That we will, in our separate Capacities, endeavour to inculcate a Reverence for the established Laws, to discourage all seditious Writings, and sedulously to detect and defeat whatever may tend to disturb the Public Peace, and excite Disaffection to the lawful Government of this Country.

That the above Resolutions be signed by the Chairman, and inserted in the Gazette, and in all the Morning and Evening Public Papers.

JOHN ELLIS, Chairman.

Resolved unanimously,

That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to John Ellis, Esq; for his Conduct in the Chair.

PLYMOUTH.

AT a Meeting of the Corporation and Inhabitants at large of this Borough, held on Monday the 17th Day of December, 1792, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, pursuant to public Notice given by the Worshipful the Mayor, for the Purpose of expressing their Attachment to the King and Constitution, in the present State of Public Affairs.

The Worshipful the MAYOR in the Chair.

Resolved,

That it is the Duty of every Briton who feels, as he ought, the inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under our unrivalled Constitution, to express his firmest and most decided Approbation thereof at the present important Crisis.

Resolved,

That knowing the Principles on which the House of Brunswick was called to the Throne of these Realms, and having experienced their Constitutional Adherence to those Principles, it is no less our Interest than our Duty to profess our most zealous Attachment to that illustrious Family.

Resolved,
