The Two following Addresses have been presented to the King by Lord Amherst: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and States of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and States of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, assembled, being informed by your Majesty's Royal Proclamation of the 1st of this Month, that evil-disposed Persons within your Kingdom employ their utmost Industry, in Concert with Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to subvert the Laws and the established Constitution of your Realm, and destroy your Government, have seized the first Opportunity our Forms could admit of to assemble, to most humbly express to your Majesty our Abhorrence and Detestation of such those treacherous and insidious Attempts and Practices.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Island, partaking, under your Majesty, of the Blessings and Advantages resulting from the best of Constitutions and the wisest of Governments, we, their Representatives, think it our Duty humbly to offer to your Majesty their sincerest Acknowledgments for the particular Happiness and Prosperity they derive therefrom; and to assure your Majesty that, adhering inviolably to the Principles of Loyalty invariably transmitted to them by their Ancestors, they will at all Times be ready to manifest their Affection, Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty, and, at the Price of their Lives and Fortunes, defend your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and those other great Bulwarks of British Freedom and Happiness.

That your Majesty may sway, in Health and Happiness, the Sceptre of your Realms to the latest Period of Life, and that it may for ever successively descend to your Royal Progeny, are the sincere Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects.

Guernsey, December 29, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and most loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey, feeling, with the Rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the utmost Indignation at the incendiary Writings spread abroad, with an evil Design to subvert the Laws and Constitution of the Realm, beg Leave, at this critical Conjunction, to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity and inviolable Attachment.

Penetrated with the inestimable Blessings which the Subjects of the British Empire enjoy, over all other Nations, under the present mild and happy Government, we are determined to support it, on every Occasion, with our Lives and Fortunes.

We shall never cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty's Reign may be long, prosperous and happy.

Guernsey, December, 1792.

Whitehall, January 12.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, and the Liberties and Limits thereof.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale and the Liberties and Limits thereof, most humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, to your august Family, and to the happy Constitution of this your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

Gratefully sensible of the Blessings derived to us from that excellent Constitution, under your Majesty's wise and auspicious Government, we hear, with Surprise and Indignation, of the Attempts of evil-minded Persons to create Tumult and Disorder, and to disturb that Quiet and Happiness which your Majesty's Subjects have so long enjoyed.

We think it our indispensable Duty to declare our Abhorrence of Proceedings so very dangerous in their Tendency, our steadfast Resolution to resist them by every Means within our Power, and to maintain that Loyalty, Peace and good Order; which have always subsisted in this your Majesty's ancient and loyal Town of Kinsale.

Kinsale, December 21, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates of the County of Somerset, residing in and near the Town of Taunton, and the Inhabitants of that Town and its Vicinity, beg to express our most grateful Thanks for those recent Instances of paternal Affection, which, in your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation and most gracious Speech from the Throne, have been manifested towards your People.

We beg, Sir, most earnestly to assure you of our unshaken Allegiance to your Royal Person, of our firm Attachment to the present Constitution, and our utter Abhorrence of all seditious and disaffected Persons.

Persons, who would attempt, in the Place of Government and Order, to substitute Anarchy and Discord.

We are confident that the manifold Blessings so universally enjoyed by all your Majesty's Subjects, under our present Form of Government, cannot be permanently established by other Means than a strict and uniform Obedience to the Laws of our Country, which, with peculiar Impartiality, afford equal Protection to Persons of all Ranks and Degrees within your Majesty's Realm. We are, therefore, resolved to exert ourselves on every Occasion, but particularly at this critical Period, in supporting the Constitution of this Kingdom as established at the glorious Revolution, and in protecting the Lives, the Property, and Civil Liberty of our Fellow Subjects.

By Order of the Meeting,

Matt. Brickdale, Chairman.

December 22, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wigan in the County of Lancaster, most ardently offer our Tribute of Gratitude to your Majesty for your late Royal Proclamation for the Suppression of Sedition, and for those wise and necessary Precautions which your Majesty has been pleased to take, to guard us against the insidious Attempts of our internal and external Enemies; and we trust that your Majesty's Exertions may defeat their treasonable and hostile Intentions.

Happy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, our Persons and Property protected by wise and salutary Laws, and by a Constitution founded on the broad and equal Basis of public as well as private Liberty, and calculated alike to diffuse it's Blessings to all Ranks and Orders of Men, we will implore Divine Providence to preserve these inestimable Blessings to us and to our Posterity. Thus devoted to our King and to our Constitution, your Majesty may with Confidence rely on our vigorous, firm and uniform Support, on our Vigilance to detect and bring to Justice the Authors, Publishers and Distributors of inflammatory Writings, and on our united Exertions to suppress every Appearance of Riot and Insurrection. We also feel a peculiar Satisfaction in being able to assure your Majesty, that Loyalty to our King and Reverence for our Laws are, in this Town and Neighbourhood, the general prevailing Sentiments.

That your Majesty may long and happily reign over us, and that our Constitution may for ever be the Glory and Admiration of Britons, are the cordial Wishes of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley in the County of York, and of the Inhabitants of the said Town and the Liberties thereof.

AT a Time when some of your Majesty's Subjects (the deluded Instruments of designing and evil-disposed Persons in another Kingdom) have endeavoured to propagate Opinions, and to maintain Doctrines subversive of all Order and Subordination, and hostile to the Constitution of this Country, so happily settled at the glorious Revolution, which placed your Majesty's Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express our grateful Sense of the Happiness and Security we derive from the mild and free Constitution of Government under which we live, to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Royal Person, and of our perfect Reliance that, by the Rectitude and Firmness of your Majesty's Government, that happy Constitution will be preserved inviolate, and still continue to excite the Envy and Admiration of the World.

Done in the Council Chamber, on Thursday the 20th Day of December, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, beg Leave, at this important Juncture, to approach the Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our steady and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

We are fully sensible of the many Privileges we possess, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, in common with all your other Subjects, and are persuaded that all the Attempts of wicked and designing Men to overturn our excellent Constitution, and to destroy all Order and good Government, will prove weak and ineffectual.

Convinced that we have the same Interest with your Majesty in enforcing due Obedience to the Laws, and being entirely satisfied that your Majesty's Happiness depends only on the Blessings your People enjoy, our Lives and Fortunes shall most heartily be devoted to the Support of our free and much envied Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Ministers of the Presbytry of Lauder.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytry of Lauder, happy in the Liberties, both Sacred and Civil, which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most fatherly and auspicious Government, beg Leave to assure you of our firmest Attachment to, and our most zealous Endeavours to support that Constitution, which, while it renders our King the most illustrious as the Father of his People, secures to them all the Blessings of Liberty, Civil and Religious.

It is with the utmost Detestation that we consider the Attempts of evil-minded Men, and disappointed Ambition, to disturb the Tranquillity and interrupt the Prosperity of this so highly favoured Nation.

We are happy to assure your Majesty, that the People under our Care are in general the Children of Peace, happy in the Blessings they enjoy; and our Exertions shall never be wanting to cultivate in them the warmest Sentiments of Love to the best of Kings and Zeal for the best of Constitutions.

That the Almighty may long preserve your Majesty to reign over a free and happy People is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytry of Lauder.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment,
by Robert Dawson, Moderator.

East Riding of the County of York, and Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

AT a very numerous and respectable Meeting held at the Minster in Beverley in the East Riding of the County of York, on Saturday the 29th Day of December, 1792, the following DECLARATION was unanimously agreed to:

We, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the East Riding of the County of York, and Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, do make this DECLARATION.

We observe, with the greatest Concern, that Opinions tending to loosen all the sacred Obligations by which Men in Society are bound to each other, destructive to all Property, and in the End most injurious to that Order of Men whose Understandings they are most calculated to mislead, have been circulated with mischievous Diligence in every Part of this Kingdom.

We, therefore, although reposing the utmost Confidence in the loyal and peaceable Disposition of the Nation at large, feel it a Duty which we owe to the Public, to ourselves, and to Posterity, to declare at this Time, and in the most solemn Manner, our faithful Attachment to the established Constitution of Great Britain, and a Government of King, Lords and Commons. And, with a View to preserve and perpetuate the many Blessings derived from such an Establishment, we will, each in our several Stations, promote and inculcate a Reverence and a due Obedience to the Laws of our Country, which have hitherto preserved the Liberty, encouraged the Exertions of the honest and industrious, and which are proved by long Experience to afford, above every other known System, full and equal Security to the Rights and Property of every Description of a free, loyal and happy People.

Resolved unanimously,

That this Declaration be lodged in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, as a Testimony of the Loyalty and Fidelity of this Riding, Town and County; and that the Lord Lieutenant be desired to transmit a Copy thereof to One of the Secretaries of State for His Majesty's Information.

Resolved unanimously,

That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to his Grace the Duke of Leeds, the Lord Lieutenant, for his Zeal to the Constitution, and the Honor he has done by presiding at this Meeting.

Signed, L E E D S.

Nairn, the 28th December, 1792,

AT a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Clergy, Proprietors of Land, Burgesses of the Borough of Nairn, and other respectable Inhabitants of the County of Nairn, called by Public Advertisement from the Conveener.

JAMES BRODIE, of Brodie, Esq; in the Chair.

The Meeting are happy to think that whatever Disorders may have appeared in other Parts of the Kingdom, this Country remains in a State of the most perfect Tranquillity.

They cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of unanimously expressing their unalterable Attachment to the British Constitution, and His present Majesty.

They therefore resolve to use their utmost Endeavours to check every Species of Sedition, in whatever Form it may appear in this Country.

That the Thanks of the Meeting are justly due to the Preses for calling them together upon this Occasion; and this Resolve be subscribed by him, and published in the London Gazette and Edinburgh Newspapers.

Signed, JAMES BRODIE, Preses.
