

Whole of the Militia Fortes of the said Counties and Ridings.

The King has also been pleased to order and direct the Lords Lieutenants of the several Counties and Riding undermentioned to embody the Whole of the Militia Forces of such Counties and Riding, viz.

- Bedford.*
- Chester.*
- Gloucester.*
- Huntingdon.*
- Hereford.*
- Northampton.*
- Nottingham.*
- Oxford.*
- Pembroke.*
- Salop.*
- Somer, &c.*
- Worcester.*
- York, West Riding, First Regiment.*

Whitehall, January 12.

The Two following Addresses have been presented to the King by Lord Amherst: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and States of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and States of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, assembled, being informed by your Majesty's Royal Proclamation of the 1st of this Month, that evil-disposed Persons within your Kingdom employ their utmost Industry, in Concert with Persons in Foreign Parts, with a View to subvert the Laws and the established Constitution of your Realm, and destroy your Government, have seized the first Opportunity our Forms could admit of to assemble, to most humbly express to your Majesty our Abhorrence and Detestation of such those treacherous and insidious Attempts and Practices.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Island, partaking, under your Majesty, of the Blessings and Advantages resulting from the best of Constitutions and the wisest of Governments, we, their Representatives, think it our Duty, humbly to offer to your Majesty their sincerest Acknowledgments for the particular Happiness and Prosperity they derive therefrom; and to assure your Majesty that, adhering inviolably to the Principles of Loyalty invariably transmitted to them by their Ancestors, they will at all Times be ready to manifest their Affection, Fidelity and Attachment to your Majesty, and, at the Price of their Lives and Fortunes, defend your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and those other great Bulwarks of British Freedom and Happiness.

That your Majesty may sway, in Health and Happiness, the Sceptre of your Realms to the latest Period of Life, and that it may for ever successively descend to your Royal Progeny, are the sincere Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects.

Guernsey, December 29, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and most loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey, feeling, with the Rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the utmost Indignation at the incendiary Writings spread abroad, with an evil Design to subvert the Laws and Constitution of the Realm, beg Leave, at this critical Conjunction, to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity and inviolable Attachment.

Penetrated with the inestimable Blessings which the Subjects of the British Empire enjoy, over all other Nations, under the present mild and happy Government, we are determined to support it, on every Occasion, with our Lives and Fortunes.

We shall never cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty's Reign may be long, prosperous and happy.

Guernsey, December, 1792.

Whitehall, January 12.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, and the Liberties and Limits thereof.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale and the Liberties and Limits thereof, most humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, to your august Family, and to the happy Constitution of this your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

Gratefully sensible of the Blessings derived to us from that excellent Constitution, under your Majesty's wise and auspicious Government, we hear, with Surprise and Indignation, of the Attempts of evil-minded Persons to create Tumult and Disorder, and to disturb that Quiet and Happiness which your Majesty's Subjects have so long enjoyed.

We think it our indispensable Duty to declare our Abhorrence of Proceedings so very dangerous in their Tendency, our steadfast Resolution to resist them by every Means within our Power, and to maintain that Loyalty, Peace and good Order; which have always subsisted in this your Majesty's ancient and loyal Town of Kinsale.

Kinsale, December 21, 1792.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates of the County of Somerset, residing in and near the Town of Taunton, and the Inhabitants of that Town and its Vicinity, beg to express our most grateful Thanks for those recent Instances of paternal Affection, which, in your Majesty's late Royal Proclamation and most gracious Speech from the Throne, have been manifested towards your People.

We beg, Sire, most earnestly to assure you of our unshaken Allegiance to your Royal Person, of our firm Attachment to the present Constitution, and our utter Abhorrence of all seditious and disaffected Persons.