

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 15, to Saturday January 19, 1793.

St. James's, January 15.
THIS Day Their Majesties, with Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, removed from Windsor to the Queen's Palace, to reside during the Winter.

St. James's, January 18.
 This Day being appointed for the Celebration of the Anniversary of the Queen's Birth-Day, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment Their Majesties on the Occasion. The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock. In the Evening there was a Ball at Court; and Illuminations and other Public Demonstrations of Joy in London and Westminster.

Whitehall, January 19.
 The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING,
 The loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County, and of the Magistrates and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Inverness.
S I R E,
WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heretors of the County, and the Magistrates and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Inverness, thinking it the Duty of all good Men to come forward, in all Times of public Danger, with those Sentiments which announce what their Conduct will be when it shall be necessary for them to act, do declare,

That, venerating our excellent Constitution, we acknowledge with Gratitude the paternal Care with which your Majesty has watched over it; and we rely on that Care, and on the Wisdom of Parliament, for the Preservation of it.

We thank your Majesty in a particular Manner for the parental Vigilance displayed in the Speech delivered from the Throne at the Opening of the present Session of Parliament.

We feel it our Duty, in the present Crisis, to say, that we loyally acknowledge the Government of this Country, as consisting of King, Lords and Commons; and we will discountenance all Doctrines derogatory thereto, and, with our Lives and Fortunes, oppose all Attempts against it.

With every Expression of affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person, as exemplarily good in public and private Life, we wish to you, Sire, and to all the Branches of your Family, all the Blessings of Peace, Freedom, and Health, and long may you govern us.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Aeneas Mackintosh, of Mackintosh, Praeses.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Clergy, Commissioners of Supply, Heretors, and Inhabitants of the County of Clackmanan.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, Commissioners of Supply, Heretors and Inhabitants of the County of Clackmanan, observing, with deep Regret, that Means have been used to excite Discontent in Parts of your Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, though not in the Neighbourhood of this County, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne in order to testify our Abhorrence of all Measures and Practices tending to create Sedition, Riots, or Tumults, and to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the Constitution of this Realm, as established at the Revolution, in King, Lords, and Commons, as well as our determined Purpose to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of all and every Part of it, if ever they shall come to be in Danger, which, we trust in God, will never be the Case.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a free, happy, and grateful People, and to dispense the Blessings we enjoy under our happy Constitution.

Signed at Alloa, the 1st Day of January, 1793
 Years.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, January 19.

The following Addresses have been presented to the King : Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful, loyal, and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Haslingden, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, trust it will not be thought an Intrusion if we, (with the Rest of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects) at this alarming Crisis, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are deeply impressed with Gratitude for your unremitting Attention and paternal Regard to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and to express our zealous Affection and firm Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We are too sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under a free and happy Government, not to reprobate, with becoming Indignation, those inflammatory and seditious Writings, which tend to alienate your Majesty's Subjects from their Allegiance, subvert our glorious Constitution, and destroy the Peace and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we cheerfully offer our Lives and Properties in Support of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, convinced that the greatest Happiness we can experience will be to live a free and loyal People in the Heart of a good and affectionate King.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Scarborough in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Scarborough in the County of York, being deeply impressed with a lively Sense of the inestimable Privileges enjoyed under our most excellent Constitution, do, in this public Manner, declare our Allegiance and unshaken Fidelity to your Majesty's sacred Person, and our firm and sincere Attachment to the present Form of Government as by Law established within these Realms.

We cannot, without the utmost Abhorrence, hear of the daring Attempts made by seditious Combinations of Republicans and Levellers, obviously tending to undermine our invaluable Constitution, and to introduce amongst us a System of Anarchy and Confusion in Lieu of the manifold Blessings afforded by our Laws, in the Protection of our Liberties, Lives, and Properties.

Under these Circumstances, we beg Leave humbly to express our Determination to co-operate with the Civil Magistrate in maintaining established Order and promoting Public Tranquillity, convinced that such (under Divine Providence) will be the most effectual Means of counteracting the wicked Attempts of evil designing Persons.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

IN these very critical Times, when evil-minded and designing Persons are busily endeavouring to shake, by the Licentiousness of their Writings and every insidious Art, that Affection and Attachment so justly due to your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we, the States of the Island of Jersey, duly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's protecting Care, and of the inestimable Benefits which your Royal Bounty, seconded by a great and generous Nation, hath, from Time to Time, conferred upon us, think it our Duty to approach your Majesty with unfeigned Assurances of the most inviolable Allegiance and Fidelity.

These Sentiments, founded on Gratitude, and strengthened by the glorious Lesson which the Example of our Ancestors holds out to us their Posterity, we are proud to say, are universally shared by the People whom we represent; and we are convinced, that no Efforts of the Enemies of good Order and good Government shall be able to eradicate from their Hearts that hereditary Loyalty which has ever formed their distinguishing Characteristic.

That your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over us, and to diffuse those Blessings, of which a happy Experience has taught us the high Value, is the earnest Prayer of your faithful Subjects, the States of the Island of Jersey.

By Order of the States,

Phil. De Carteret, Greff.

[Presented by the Right Hon. General Conway.]

Dublin-Castle, January 10.

THIS Day the Parliament having met, according to Prorogation, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, the Honourable Henry Fane, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers: The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency made the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Have His Majesty's Commands to meet you in Parliament, and to express His Satisfaction in referring to your Counsels in the present Situation of Affairs.

His Majesty feels the utmost Concern that various Attempts should have been made to excite a Spirit of Discontent and Disturbance, and that Appearances should have manifested themselves in any Part of this Kingdom, of a Design to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Constitution.

It is an additional Ground of Uneasiness to His Majesty, that Views of Conquest and Dominion should have incited France to interfere with the Government of other Countries, and to adopt Measures, with regard to His Majesty's Allies the States General, neither conformable to the Law of Nations, nor the positive Stipulations of existing Treaties; especially when both His Majesty and the States General had observed the strictest Neutrality with regard to the Affairs of France.

Under these Circumstances, I have ordered, by His Majesty's Commands, an Augmentation of the Forces upon this Establishment.

By the Advice of the Privy Council, Measures have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Provisions and Naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition. The Circumstances, which rendered these Measures necessary, will, I trust, justify any temporary Infringement of the Laws, and will induce you to give them a Parliamentary Sanction.

It will afford His Majesty the greatest Satisfaction if, by a temperate and firm Conduct, the Blessings of Peace can be continued; but He feels assured of your zealous Concurrence in His Determination to provide for the Security and Interests of His Dominions, and to fulfil those positive Engagements, to which He is equally bound by the Honour of His Crown and the general Interests of the Empire.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the National Accounts to be laid before you, and I have no Doubt of your Readiness to grant such Supplies for the Public Service, as the Honour and Security of His Majesty's Crown and Government, and the Exigences of the Times, may require.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufactures, the Protestant Charter-Schools and other Public Institutions, which have so repeatedly been the Objects of your Care, will, I doubt not, engage your accustomed Regard and Liberality.

I am to recommend to you, in His Majesty's Name, to adopt such Measures as may be most advisable for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity, and for this Purpose to render more effectual the Law for establishing a Militia in this Kingdom.

His Majesty has the fullest Confidence that you will, on all Occasions, shew your firm Determination to enforce due Obedience to the Laws, and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which you may depend upon His Majesty's cordial Co-operation and Support: And I have it in particular Command from His Majesty, to recommend it to you to apply yourselves to the Consideration of such Measures as may be most likely to strengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Classes and Descriptions of His Majesty's Subjects in Support of the established Constitution: With this View His Majesty trusts that the Situation of His Majesty's Catholic Subjects will engage your serious Attention; and in the Consideration of this Subject He relies on the Wisdom and Liberality of His Parliament.

I am truly sensible of the repeated Testimonies which I have received of your Approbation, and I will endeavour to merit a Continuance of your good Opinion, by strenuously exerting the Power with which I am entrusted for the Maintenance of our excellent Constitution in Church and State, as the best Security for the Liberty of the Subject and the Prosperity of Ireland.

Admiralty-Office, January 16, 1793.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, that the Brig Providence, of Great Yarmouth, whereof William Taylor was Master, bound from Seville to the Port of London, laden with Fruit, was, on the 8th Instant, driven on Shore at the West End of Beachy Head, in the County of Sussex; and that the greatest Part of the Cargo was saved, but much damaged.

Ph. Stephens.

Whitehall, January 1, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Six o'Clock in the Evening of the 28th of December, 1792, a Barn belonging to Samuel Brown, Esq; situated at Dulwich in the County of Surrey, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is Reason to believe that the said Barn was maliciously and wilfully set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Barn abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS:

And, as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the

Cha: Alex. Craig,
Great Scotland Yard; Whitehall.
