

Whitehall, January 19.

The following Addresses have been presented to the King : Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful, loyal, and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Haslingden, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, trust it will not be thought an Intrusion if we, (with the Rest of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects) at this alarming Crisis, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are deeply impressed with Gratitude for your unremitting Attention and paternal Regard to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and to express our zealous Affection and firm Allegiance to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We are too sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under a free and happy Government, not to reprobate, with becoming Indignation, those inflammatory and seditious Writings, which tend to alienate your Majesty's Subjects from their Allegiance, subvert our glorious Constitution, and destroy the Peace and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we cheerfully offer our Lives and Properties in Support of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, convinced that the greatest Happiness we can experience will be to live a free and loyal People in the Heart of a good and affectionate King.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Scarborough in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Scarborough in the County of York, being deeply impressed with a lively Sense of the inestimable Privileges enjoyed under our most excellent Constitution, do, in this public Manner, declare our Allegiance and unshaken Fidelity to your Majesty's sacred Person, and our firm and sincere Attachment to the present Form of Government as by Law established within these Realms.

We cannot, without the utmost Abhorrence, hear of the daring Attempts made by seditious Combinations of Republicans and Levellers, obviously tending to undermine our invaluable Constitution, and to introduce amongst us a System of Anarchy and Confusion in Lieu of the manifold Blessings afforded by our Laws, in the Protection of our Liberties, Lives, and Properties.

Under these Circumstances, we beg Leave humbly to express our Determination to co-operate with the Civil Magistrate in maintaining established Order and promoting Public Tranquillity, convinced that such (under Divine Providence) will be the most effectual Means of counteracting the wicked Attempts of evil designing Persons.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

IN these very critical Times, when evil-minded and designing Persons are busily endeavouring to shake, by the Licentiousness of their Writings and every insidious Art, that Affection and Attachment so justly due to your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we, the States of the Island of Jersey, duly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's protecting Care, and of the inestimable Benefits which your Royal Bounty, seconded by a great and generous Nation, hath, from Time to Time, conferred upon us, think it our Duty to approach your Majesty with unfeigned Assurances of the most inviolable Allegiance and Fidelity.

These Sentiments, founded on Gratitude, and strengthened by the glorious Lesson which the Example of our Ancestors holds out to us their Posterity, we are proud to say, are universally shared by the People whom we represent; and we are convinced, that no Efforts of the Enemies of good Order and good Government shall be able to eradicate from their Hearts that hereditary Loyalty which has ever formed their distinguishing Characteristic.

That your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over us, and to diffuse those Blessings, of which a happy Experience has taught us the high Value, is the earnest Prayer of your faithful Subjects, the States of the Island of Jersey.

By Order of the States,

Phil. De Carteret, Greff.

[Presented by the Right Hon. General Conway.]
