AT the Court at the Queen's House, the 28th of January, 1793.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day graciously pleased to deliver the Great Seal to the Right Honourable Alexander Lord Loughborough; whereupon the Oath of Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain was, by His Majesty's Command, administered to his Lordship, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, January 26.

The following Address has been presented to the King by Wilson Braddyll, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Land-Owners, and other Inhabitants, North of the Sands, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Land-Owners, and other Inhabitants, North of the Sands, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, presume to come forward in the present interesting Situation of this Kingdom with a public Testimony of our Loyalty; and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, with a Warmth and Freedom becoming the British Character,

That our Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and our Love and Veneration for the established Government, are unshaken.

That we feel an equal Abhorrence of Tyranny, whatever Shape it may assume, and are as tenacious of our just Liberty as we are indignant at the Insults offered it's sacred Name.

That, highly sensible of the superior Blessings we enjoy under this mild and happy Constitution, and persuaded of it's Competency to make them permanent, we think it a Duty we owe to our Country, ourselves, and Posterity, to abide by and support the same by every Means in our Power.

Animated with these Sentiments, we do most cordially unite in expressing our utter Detestation of the infamous and wicked Practices which have been manifestly intended to diffuse a licentious and levelling Disposition through all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, and particularly calculated to stir up in the Minds of the Vicious and the Ignorant a Spirit of Discontent, Disobedience to the Laws, and Contempt of the Constitution.

With Hearts, therefore, full of Gratitude, we humbly offer our unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty for the late well-timed Instances of your Royal Wisdom, Prudence, and paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People; which, strengthened by the combined Efforts of your dutiful Subjects, we trust will effectually crush the pernicious Designs of the Enemies to our Peace and Prosperity.

Firmly persuaded that the House of Brunswick will never separate it's Interests from those of the People, we confide in your Majesty's unremitting Vigilance and Exertions to maintain this invaluable Constitution, and to protect your faithful Subjects in that greatest of human Blessings, the secure Enjoyment of their Religious and Civil Liberties, which must ever command the Lives and Fortunes of a free and grateful People, in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Family.

That your Majesty may long reign over a happy and united People, is the sincere Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects.

Whitehall, January 29.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, partment, has been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dunfermline, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Presence with a Declaration of those Sentiments of Affection which we feel for your Majesty's Person, Crown and Government, and of our firm Resolution to support and defend them, to the utmost of our Power, against all Enemies, both Foreign and Domestic.

And we profess our sincere Attachment to that Form of Government established at the Revolution, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, under which our Ancestors and we have enjoyed so much Happiness, and which we earnestly wish may be handed down unimpaired to our Posterity. We will also discourage and oppose every malicious and insidious Attempt that may be made by wicked and designing Men to mislead the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, under whatever specious Pretence, as we have a firm Reliance that the Wisdom and Virtue of your Majesty's Councils will, in the present very important Period, be employed in pursuing those Measures which shall ultimately redound to the Honor and Welfare of these Kingdoms.

Signed by Order of Council, by

At Dunfermline, Jan. 12, 1793.

SALTERS HALL, LONDON,

January 15, 1793.

AT a General Court of the Livery of the Worshipful Company of Salters, held this Day, the following Declaration was unanimously resolved upon and agreed to:

WE, the Master, Wardens, Court of Assistants, and Livery of the Worshipful Company of Salters, London, feel how much it is the Duty of all loyal Britons, who inhabit an Island long esteemed and revered by surrounding Nations; who possess an extensive Commerce and flourishing Manufactures; who enjoy, in the most ample Manner, Security of Property and personal Safety; who live under the Protection of a Constitution of Government, unequalled in the Annals of Mankind for the Blessings which it affords, the most perfect in Theory, and the most happy in Practice that ever existed.

This well constructed System of Government was erected by the Wisdom of our Ancestors, established at the glorious Revolution of 1688, and delivered down to us to be preferred as a Constitution, the best calculated to give Happiness and Prosperity to a free People.

We therefore, the undersigned, do, in the most solemn Manner, declare, that we are determined to support our excellent Constitution of Government, composed of King, Lords, and Commons, on all Occasions, with the utmost Exertions in our Power.
