Whitehall, February 5.

The following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the American Loyalists.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the American Loyalists, having with Indignation observed the many seditious Papers which have been lately circulated with great Industry, in order to alienate the Affections of the Ignorant from the British Constitution, and to excite unprincipled Men to endeavour at the Subversion of the best Constitution on Earth, humbly beg Leave to declare our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Zeal for the Maintenance of the happy Constitution of this Country; in Defence of which we shall be again ready to risque every Thing that is dear to us.

We beg Leave again to offer our most grateful Acknowledgments, for the Provision made us on Account of our Losses and Services from an Attachment to the British Government, in consequence of your Majesty's gracious Recommendation of our distressed Case to the Wisdom of Parliament; and we trust that the invariable Tenor of our Lives will make it appear that we are not unworthy of the Attention which has been shewn us.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall always use our utmost Endeavours to promote an Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and the inestimable Constitution of Great Britain; and we shall not fail to put up our Prayers to Almighty God that He will pour down His Blessings on your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and your numerous Offspring; that He will give you a long and happy Reign, and that your Posterity may sway the Sceptre of the British Empire till Time is no more.

William Pepperrell, Chairman,
on Behalf of the American Loyalists.

[ Presented by Sir William Pepperrell and Governor Tonnyn. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Rochdale in the County Palatine of Lancaster, most humbly beg Leave to declare to your Majesty our sincere Attachment to your Royal Person, and our unfeigned Zeal for the Preservation of our present happy Constitution.

Secure in the Possession of a prosperous Trade and the Enjoyment of numberless Blessings under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, we most cordially detest all Attempts at Innovation, which we strongly apprehend would involve this flourishing Kingdom in Anarchy, Confusion and Misery.

With the deepest Concern we observed the earnest Endeavours that have been exerted over the Minds of ignorant and unwary Persons, by the Dispersion of seditious and inflammatory Papers, tending to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects: But we feel a most pleasing Satisfaction in reflecting that it has afforded us an Opportunity of thus publickly manifesting the real Sentiments of our Hearts, and giving indisputable Proofs of our Loyalty to your Majesty, and our Confidence in the present Government.

We presume to assure your Majesty that we have already used our utmost Exertions to repress all Violations of Peace and good Order, and shall continue, by every possible Means, to enforce a due Submission and Obedience to the Laws of our Country.

[ Presented by the Rev. Thomas Drake, D. D. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Seceding Congregation of Clonanees, in the County of Tyrone.

AT a Time when Danger threatens the State, we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with an Offer of our Lives and Properties in its Defence; satisfied that every Support we can give to our present most happy Form of Government is to advance our own Welfare, and that of the Nation at large. Given under our Hands this 14th Day of January, 1793.

Dublin Castle, January 29.
