P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has received Intelligence that some Ships belonging to His Majesty's Subjects have been and are detained in the French Ports; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no Ships or Vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects be permitted to enter and clear out for any of the Ports of France, or for the Ports of any Country occupied by the Armies of France, until further Order: And His Majesty is further pleased to order, that a General Embargo or Stop be made of all French Ships and Vessels whatsoever now within, or which hereafter shall come into any of the Ports, Harbours or Roads within the Kingdom of Great Britain, together with all Persons and Effects on Board the said Ships and Vessels; but that the utmost Care be taken for the Preservation of all and every Part of the Cargoes on Board any of the said Ships, so that no Damage or Embezzlement whatever be sustained: — And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. W. Farwaker.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens ar-iving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in "certain Cafes," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to order and direct such Aliens, as are therein mentioned, to dwell and reside respectively in such Districts as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall think necessary for the Public Security; His Majesty, by the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order and direct that all Aliens, who shall have arrived within this Kingdom since the First Day of January, 1792, or who shall arrive therein during the Continuance of the aforesaid Act, or until His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure respecting such Aliens shall be further expressed, (other than Aliens being Alien Merchants, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, and Domestic Servants of any of the natural-born Subjects of His Majesty, or of Subjects to whom Letters Patent of Denization have been or shall be hereafter granted, or the Domestic Servants of any of His Majesty's Subjects who now are or shall be hereafter naturalized by Act of Parliament, such Domestic Servants being actually and bona fide employed in the Service of their respective Masters, and other than such Aliens as shall, by virtue of a Special Licence, under the Hand and Seal of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, be authorized to dwell and reside, during the Time that such Licence shall be in Force, in other Parts of this Kingdom than those hereinafter specified) shall, from and after the Fifteenth Day of February, 1793, if such Aliens shall then be resident in England, or if such Aliens shall be resident in Scotland, then from and after the Twentieth Day of February, 1793, dwell or reside only within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of St. Mary le Bone, Paddington, Pancras, and St. Luke at Chelsea in the County of Middlesex, or within such Parts of the
