

the Kingdom as shall not be more than Fifty Miles from the Standard in Cornhill, and not less than Ten Miles distant from the Sea Coast, and also from any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards; and in no other Parts whatever: Provided that this Order shall not be construed to extend to such Aliens as shall land in any Part of this Kingdom, in which Aliens are not, or shall not be, prohibited from landing by His Majesty's Proclamation or Order in Council, and who shall be actually proceeding to the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs at such Port, for the Purpose of making the Declaration, and receiving the Certificate by the said Act required; or proceeding to the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate at such Port, for the Purpose of obtaining his or her Passport, as by the said Act is also required; nor to any Alien who shall have made such Declaration, and shall have obtained such Certificate and Passport as before mentioned, and shall be actually and bona fide proceeding on his or her Journey to some Place of Residence being within those Parts of Great Britain in which, pursuant to this Order, such Alien may dwell and reside; nor to any Alien who shall be proceeding on his or her Journey to the Sea Coast of this Kingdom with such Passports as are by the said Act required, in order to embark for Foreign Parts; nor to any Mariner who shall be on Shore in the Port of his Arrival, and whom the Master or Commander of the Ship or Vessel in which such Mariner shall have arrived, shall have certified to the Collector, Comptroller or other Chief Officer of the Customs, in Writing, subscribed by such Master, to be actually engaged and employed in the Navigation of such Ship or Vessel: His Majesty doth hereby charge and command that all Aliens to whom this Order relates, shall pay due Obedience to the same; and that all Justices of the Peace, Mayors and other Magistrates do respectively use their utmost Diligence to enforce the same.

W. Fawkener.

Whitehall, February 5.

The following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the American Loyalists.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the American Loyalists, having with Indignation observed the many seditious Papers which have been lately circulated with great Industry, in order to alienate the Affections of the Ignorant from the British Constitution, and to excite unprincipled Men to endeavour at the Subversion of the best Constitution on Earth, humbly beg Leave to declare our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Zeal for the Maintenance of the happy Constitution of this Country; in Defence of which we shall be again ready to risque every Thing that is dear to us.

We beg Leave again to offer our most grateful Acknowledgments, for the Provision made us on Account of our Losses and Services from an Attachment to the British Government, in consequence of your Majesty's gracious Recommendation of our distressed Case to the Wisdom of Parliament; and we trust that the invariable Tenor of our Lives will make it appear that we are not unworthy of the Attention which has been shewn us.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall always use our utmost Endeavours to promote an Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and the inestimable Constitution of Great Britain; and we shall not fail to put up our Prayers to Almighty God that He will pour down His Blessings on your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and your numerous Offspring; that He will give you a long and happy Reign, and that your Posterity may sway the Sceptre of the British Empire till Time is no more.

William Pepperrell, Chairman, on Behalf of the American Loyalists.

[*Presented by Sir William Pepperrell and Governor
Tonyn.*]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Rochdale in the County Palatine of Lancaster, most humbly beg Leave to declare to your Majesty our sincere Attachment to your Royal Person, and our unfeigned Zeal for the Preservation of our present happy Constitution.

Secure in the Possession of a prosperous Trade and the Enjoyment of numberless Blessings under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, we most cordially detest all Attempts at Innovation, which we strongly apprehend would involve this flourishing Kingdom in Anarchy, Confusion and Misery.

With the deepest Concern we observed the earnest Endeavours that have been exerted over the Minds of ignorant and unwary Persons, by the Dispersion of seditious and inflammatory Papers, tending to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects: But we feel a most pleasing Satisfaction in reflecting that it has afforded us an Opportunity of thus publickly manifesting the real Sentiments of our Hearts, and giving indisputable Proofs of our Loyalty to your Majesty, and our Confidence in the present Government.

We presume to assure your Majesty that we have already used our utmost Exertions to repress all Violations of Peace and good Order, and shall continue, by every possible Means, to enforce a due Submission and Obedience to the Laws of our Country.

[Presented by the Rev. Thomas Drake, D. D.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Seceding Congregation of Clonanees, in the County of Tyrone.

AT a Time when Danger threatens the State, we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with an Offer of our Lives and Properties in its Defence; satisfied that every Support we can give to our present most happy Form of Government is to advance our own Welfare, and that of the Nation at large. Given under our Hands this 14th Day of January, 1793.

Dublin Castle, January 29.

His Majesty, by His Royal Letters, having appointed George Frederick, Earl of Westmeath, to be of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council of this Kingdom, his Lordship this Day in Council took the usual Oaths and his Place at the Board accordingly.