AT the Court at the Queen's House, the 25th of January, 1793,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Allowance of the "Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships." His Majesty was pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the 15th of June, 1792, to approve of the Port of Exuma, in the Island of Exuma, one of the said Bahama Islands; and of the Port of St. George and the Port of Pembroke, in the said Island of Bermuda; to be Ports for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation, subject to the Regulations prescribed in the Acts of the Twenty-seventh and Thirtieth Years of His Majesty's Reign, mentioned in the said Order in Council: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that it will better answer the Purposes of the said Act, that the Port of Hamilton, in the Harbour of Crow Lane, in the said Island of Bermuda, should be approved as the Port for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation, instead of Pembroke, mentioned in the said Order. His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to revoke and make void so much of the afore recited Order as approved of the Port of Pembroke (therein mentioned) for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation. And His Majesty is further pleased, with the Advice aforesaid, to approve of the Port of Hamilton, in the Harbour of Crow Lane, in the Island of Bermuda, to be a Port for the Importation of Sugar and Coffee, the Produce of any Foreign Country or Plantation, subject to the Regulations prescribed in the Two Acts last mentioned in the afore recited Order in Council of the 15th Day of June, 1792.
