The following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County Palatine of Chester, and the Grand Jury for the said County, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, presume to express to your Majesty our humble Thanks for the constitutional Care your Majesty has taken to suppress, throughout your Kingdoms, the Dispersion of wicked and seditious Writings, and all other Attempts which lately threatened with imminent Danger the Property, Lives and Liberties of your faithful Subjects. We beg Leave to offer our most solemn Assurance that we will assiduously endeavour, with all the Powers delegated to us by the Laws of our Country, to promote your Majesty's gracious Intentions in this Respect. Nor can we withhold our Testimony to the Spirit of constitutional Loyalty at this Time so remarkably displayed, nor forbear to congratulate your Majesty upon such an ample Proof of the good Sense and Public Spirit of the People of these Realms; and we are desirous to express our Confidence, that this very seasonable Energy will secure to all your faithful Subjects the Continuance of the many Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; certain, from our long Experience of that Government, that in expressing this Hope we convey to your Majesty an Assurance the most grateful, and fully consonant to your Majesty's gracious Wishes and constant Attention to the Welfare of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, in the County of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the seditious Principles which wicked and designing Men, in Concert with the ancient Enemies of our Country, have industriously disseminated throughout the Kingdom with a View of alienating the Minds of the People from your Majesty's Person and Government.

Sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our most excellent and truly enviable Constitution, and confident that our Civil and Religious Liberties can only be secured to us by it's Continuation, we warmly and cordially join in the National Sentiments, expressed by the Two Houses of Parliament, in returning our sincere Thanks to your Majesty for the fresh Instance you have afforded us of your paternal Regard to the dearest Interests of the People, by employing vigorous Measures for securing the Peace of the Nation at Home, and maintaining it's Honour and Dignity Abroad.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to our happy System of Government, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, and our unalterable Resolution to resist, by every Means in our Power, the Designs and Enterprizes of it's open and secret Enemies:

Accept, Sire, our fervent Wishes that, through the Revolution of Ages, the Principles of the Constitution may remain immutable; that your Majesty may long continue to sway the Sceptre over these Kingdoms, and that the Crown may descend, with undiminished Splendor, through your illustrious Family, to the latest Generations.

[Presented by Sir George Warren, Bart.]
