GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged with France, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will vouchsafe a special Blessing on Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, that a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Friday the Nineteenth Day of April next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy judgments, which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety and Prosperity to Us, and Our Kingdoms. And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favor of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same; We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and and Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of March, 1793, in the Thirty-third Year of Our Reign.

FOR War-Office, February 26, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon; and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; His Majesty has been graciously pleased, by His Order in Council, to grant His free Pardon to all Deserters from His Regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 30th of April next, to the Corps from which they originally deserted; but if such Corps be not within this Kingdom, they shall then be entitled to the like Pardon, on Condition of surrendering to any other Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, or to any Recruiting Party thereof in Great Britain or Ireland.

Such Deserters, if Able-bodied Men and fit for Service, shall be attested in the Corps to which they surrender, and not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged, unless it shall appear that such other Corps, or some Part thereof, was actually in Great Britain at the Time of their surrendering.

And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon, and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable at any future Time to be claimed by that in which they formerly served; Deserters from the Royal Regiment of Artillery, or Corps of Royal Military,

Military-Artificers and Labourers excepted; who, if serving in other Corps, are only to be entitled to the Benefit of this Pardon upon Condition of declaring themselves Deserters from, and of returning to, the Corps under the Department of the Ordnance to which they originally belonged; and, not so declaring themselves, they shall be liable at any future Time to be claimed by the said Corps, and punished as Deserters.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended and are now in Gaol, or in Regimental Custody, His Majesty is likewise pleased to grant them His free Pardon, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival at their own Corps, or upon their being enlisted by some other Corps or Recruiting Party, according as their respective Cases may be, and in Conformity to the Conditions herein before set forth.

Any Soldier, who may have deserted since the First of this instant February, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Sir John Temple, Bart. to be His Majesty's Consul General in the Eastern States of America.

The King has also been pleased to constitute and appoint Phineas Bond, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul General in the Middle and Southern States of America.

Whitehall, March 2.

The following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, truly sensible of the paternal Care and Affection of your Majesty, for the Prosperity and Happiness of all your People, humbly presume to approach your Majesty's Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude; for the Exertions now making by your Majesty for the Protection of the Persons and Property of your Subjects, against the Hostilities committing upon them, by a Set of desperate Men, who have dethroned and murdered their lawful Sovereign, and taken the Reins of the Government of that Kingdom into their own Hands, and who have since, without the smallest Provocation, actually declared War against your Majesty and your Allies.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will be ever ready to co-operate with your Majesty's Ministers to the utmost of our Power in every Measure which may be deemed necessary to frustrate the Attempts of your Enemies, and for the Support of the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the glorious Constitution of this Kingdom, as by Law established.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Lancaster, this 23d Day of February, 1793.

[Presented by Sir George Warren and Mr. Dent.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpool, in Special Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly approach your Throne, with the warmest Acknowledgements of Gratitude for the paternal Care and Attention uniformly shewn by your Majesty for the Welfare and Happiness of your People; and more particularly for the recent Proof we have experienced in the wise Precautions and moderate Measures adopted by your Majesty, for preserving to your Subjects a Continuance of the Blessings of Peace. But whilst we lament that your Majesty's benevolent Intentions have been frustrated by an unjustifiable Declaration of War and actual Commencement of Hostilities against this Country, by the Persons now exercising the Powers of Government in France, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will most zealously concur with the rest of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, in such Measures as may be deemed necessary for the Support of the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and for the Maintenance of the National Character, Consequence and Independence of Great Britain.

Given under our Common Seal this 20th Day of February, in the Year of our Lord, 1793.

[Presented by Owen Salusbury Brereton, Recorder.]

On the 21st Instant a French Ship of the Line, and a Bomb-Ketch, appeared before the Island of St. Peter, which was immediately surrendered to the French, the Commandant having previously retired to this Place with a Detachment of 800 Men, and such Provisions as they could bring with them, and spiked the Cannon they left behind. The French have also taken the Island of Antioch.

Yesterday the French Fleet, consisting of 19 Ships of the Line, anchored in this Harbour. The Admiral sent a Detachment of 20 Men on Shore with the National Flag, and an Officer, who demanded the Surrender of the Place; but the Lieutenant of the Port cautioned them not to advance; and when they arrived near the Pratick House, the Sardes killed the Drummer and 16 others: The rest retreated to the Ship. It is expected that the Town will be bombarded this Morning.

STATE LOTTERY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, Feb. 12, 1793.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties think it proper, on the near Approach of the Drawing of the Lottery, to give this Publick Notice, that the following Regulations are established by this Office, for preventing ILLEGAL INSURANCE:

1st. Pursuant to a Settlement with the Committee of City Lands, no Person will be admitted at Guildhall to take down the Numbers as they are drawn but the Clerks of the licensed Lottery-Office-Keepers.

2^d. The Numbers are to be taken by the said Clerks, not, as before, on separate Slips, but in the Numerical Book of each Office, signed by the respective Office-Keepers, and counter-signed by Two or more of the Commissioners of Stamps.

3^d. No Account of any Part of the Drawing in each Day is to be issued, nor any of the Clerks to return with their Numerical Books, until the final Close of each Day's Drawing.

4th. By a Settlement with Mr. Steele, the Proprietor of the Patent List, the same is not to be published, as heretofore, by Slips, in each Hour, nor by an early Account of the Drawing of each Day, (both of which Communications obviously contributed to the Abuses of illegal Insurance;) but in future only Twice a Week, for the necessary Information of the Publick at large, and at such Hours as the Intelligence can be least perverted for the Abuses of unlicensed Offices, if any such shall remain. But the Commissioners trust, that, by these Regulations, and by the published Notices from the Lord Mayor and the Court of Aldermen, as well as from the Chairmen and the Magistrates for Westminster and the County of Middlesex; and likewise from the Magistrates of the Police, of a perfect Co-operation with this Office, the only remaining Abuse that has attacked on the State Lotteries will be as totally suppressed as the Sale of illegal Chances, which is completely at an End. The insuperable Difficulties that are now opposed to the illegal Transactions, cannot fail to discourage the Continuance of unlicensed Offices; and the Evidence of the Publick, that if any such should be continued, they must proceed without authentic Intelligence of the Drawings, cannot but prevent, to a great Degree, further Confidence being reposed in the illicit Dealers; who, on their Part, by persisting in illegal Attempts, can only expose themselves, for diminished Profits, to the increased Vigilance of the Magistracy in the effectual Maintenance of the Law.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.
