Sustenance of the Crew, Live Stock, and Cattle on Board the faid Ships or Vessels, in Manner hereinbefore mentioned) the Merchant Exporter of any of the faid Articles do make Cath, on the Entry of fuch Ships and Veffels, of the due Destination thereof to the Place for which such Ships and Vessels shall be entered and cleared out; and do give Security by Bond, in Treble the Value of the Articles fo exported, to the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port at which such Ships and Vessels shall enter and clear out, with Two other able and fufficient Sureties (of whom the Master of the Ship shall be One) to be approved of by the faid Officers of the Cuftoms, to produce, within Twelve Months from the Date of such Bond, from the proper Officer of the Customs of the Port to which such Ships or Vessels shall go, or, in case such Ships or Vessels shall go to a Port where there is no fuch Officer, then from the British Consul resident at such Port, or, in case there shall be no such Conful there resident, or he shall be ablent from the same, then from Two British Merchants refident there; Certificates of their having delivered the Articles above enumerated at the Places for which they have been entered; and no fuch Bonds or Securities shall be delivered up, but on the Production of such Certificates :- And it is His Majesty's further Pleasure, that the said Embargo shall not extend to any Ship or Veffel belonging to the Subjects of Countries in Amity with His Majesty, laden with Leather manufactured; provided that the Merchant Exporter do make Oath of the due Destination of the Ship or Vessel to the Port for which the shall be entered and cleared out, and do give the like Security, with Two other able and fufficient Sureties, being known British Merchants, or other Perfons of acknowledged Credit, refident in this Kingdom, to produce, within Twelve Months from the Date of such Bond, from the proper Officer of the Customs of the Port to which fuch Ships or Vessels shall go, or, in case such Ships or Vessels shall go to a Port where there is no fuch Officer, then from the British Consul resident at such Port, or, in case there ihall be no fuch Conful there refident, or he shall be absent from the same, then from Two British Merchants refident there, Certificates of their having delivered fuch manufactured Leather at the Place for which it shall have been entered; and no such Bonds or Securities shall be delivered up but on the Production of fuch Certificates: - And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Ad. miralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

The Taid Articles than is necessary for the Use and AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th of March. Sustenance of the Crew, Live Stock, and Cattle on 1793.

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

JIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint John Lord Viscount Mount Stuart to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Whitehall, March 16.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE late vigorous and well-advised Measures which your Majesty has wisely adopted, to support the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and to secure our boasted Constitution, call upon us again to solicit your Majesty's Acceptance of this Testimony of our Loyalty and Gratitude.

We shall ever be ready to manifest that Loyalty and Gratitude by chearfully contributing our Aid and Assistance in such Manner as your Majesty, with the Advice of your Parliament, shall call for and direct. And as it is our undoubted Interest and Duty, so shall it be our servent Wish, that Glory and Success may attend your Majesty's Arms; and that Britain may still maintain that exalted Character which she has long held among all surrounding States.

Given under the Common Seal of the faid Borough, the 8th Day of March, in the Thirtythird of your Majesty's Reign.

[ Prejented by Sir Henry Hoghton. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with those Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty's Perfon and Government, and of Attachment to the Constitution of our Country, which every good Citizen must feel, and which the Urgency of the present Crisis calls on every one to express.

We have learned, with Aftonishment and Indignation, that the War in which your Majesty and the whole Nation are involved by the Aggression of those who now exercise the Powers of Government in France, has by them been stated to be the War of your Majesty's Ministers alone, and that Menaces have been held out, of a solemn Appeal from the Executive Government and Legislature, to the general Sense of the British Nation.

We are anxious to meet or anticipate that Appeal by this publick Declaration, that the Cause in which your Majesty is engaged is the Cause of your People. That not only the Sasety of our Allies, and the general Tranquillity of Europe, but the internal Peace of our Country, and the Security of our Laws,