Whitehall, March 19.

THE following Address has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Queensferry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Queensferry, humbly approach your Majesty with our most sincere Thanks for your Royal Message to both Houses of Parliament; a Message in which your Majesty has been pleased to announce that, in the present Emergency of Public Affairs, you have taken every necessary Step to maintain the Honour of the Nation and the Rights of a free and loyal People. Although we consider Peace as the most valuable of Blessings, as it is the State in which Men would wish to live with one another, and as it is the State most favourable to the Interests of a Commercial Country; yet, when a neighbouring Nation, after having overturned every venerable Principle of social Order within her own Dominions, has been seen to act on Views of Aggrandizement, and has already made Aggressions hostile to the Peace and Safety of Europe; when she has held out the Arm of her Fraternity to some of our deluded, discontented Countrymen, and has boasted she would plant the Tree of Liberty in our happy Island, where it has long flourished; when she is this Moment invading the Country of our Allies, and has actually issued forth a Decree of War against ourselves; in such Circumstances of Aggression, in such a Season of Danger and Alarm, Peace, we conceive, to be inconsistent with Public Safety and National Honour.

In a War to which we are thus irresistibly driven, remembering that we are the Subjects of a King who is the Father of his People and the Citizens of a free State, we will zealously sustain the Part of a loyal People; and feeling it to be our Duty, it is our determined Resolution, to make every vigorous and patriotic Exertion to maintain the Honour of the British Arms, to support your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and to preserve the Purity, Independence and Stability of our glorious Constitution.

Signed in our Presence, and at our Desire, by our Chief Magistrate, at Queensferry, the 5th Day of March, 1793, the Seal of the Borough being also hereto affixed.

Alex. McNabb.
