Hague, March 25.

Lieutenant Western, of His Majesty's Frigate the Syren, who was unfortunately killed on the 21st, by a Shot from the Enemy's entrenched Battery at the Noord Post, was buried Yesterday in the Church of Dordrecht, with Military Honours, and with every Solemnity that could mark Regard to the Memory of a young Officer, who had shewn on all Occasions an active and steady Courage, and an ardent Desire to distinguish himself. His Royal Highness the Duke of York was present, with the Officers and Troops under his Command. The Funeral was also attended by the Officers and Crews of the English Gun-Boats.

Hague, March 26.

Accounts have been received here from the Prince of Saxe Cobourg, dated Breibeck near Louvain, the 23^d Instant, stating, that on the preceding Day he had attacked the French, who were advantageously posted between Tirlemont and Louvain: That the Engagement was long and obstinate; but that the French were beat, and driven beyond Louvain, and were then posted behind the Dyle, between Louvain and Brussels.

Hague, March 28.

A Letter was this Morning received Express from Captain Bentinck, dated Yesterday, at Bois le Duc, containing Intelligence from Antwerp and Maestricht that the Advanced Guard of the Austrian Army entered Brussels on the 24th at Noon: That the French Army was posted at Halle: That the Country, from Bois le Duc to Lier, was clear of the Enemy; and that the French Force still at Breda, amounted to 4000, and that at Gertruydenberg to 2500 Men.

Accounts are also received that Diest was taken on the 20th, in an Attack by Colonel Mylius; that a considerable Magazine was left by the French at Louvain; and that, in the Affair of the 22^d, the Austrians had 1000 Men killed and wounded, and the French had 4000 killed.
