From Tuesday April 2, to Saturday April 6, 1793.

Whitehall, April 6.

THE following Address has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Denbigh, assembled at the Spring Assizes held at Ruthin the 25th Day of March, 1793, humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for the just and salutary Measures your Majesty has adopted in Support of your Allies, and for curbing the hitherto uncontrouled ambitious Views of the French Nation, whose late Conduct has so deservedly brought on them the Detestation of every civilized State throughout the World.

In Support of so just a War, that your Majesty has been forced into, we beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our Lives and Fortunes, being highly sensible that the Welfare of Mankind in general, and the Peace not only of this Country but of all Europe, depends on the Success thereof.

Great Chamberlain's Office, Whitehall, April 4, 1793.

ATTENDANCE will be given on Monday the 8th Instant, from Ten in the Morning till Eight in the Evening, at the Prince's Chambers, near the House of Peers; where the Peers Tickets for the Trial of Warren Hastings, Esq; will be delivered.

The Tickets for the Great Chamberlain's Box and Gallery will be delivered on Thursday the 11th, at his House at Whitehall, between the Hours of Eleven in the Morning and Seven in the Evening.

Pat. Burrell, D. G. C.
