By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For granting the Distribution of Prizes during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by Our Order in Council dated the Eleventh Day of February last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of France, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to France; or any Persons being Subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of France, and bring the same to Judgement in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions: We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council, by Our Order of the Eighth of March last, Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes; and Reprizals of all Ships and Goods, during the present Hostilities, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, That the Neat Produce of all Prizes taken, the Right whereof is inherent in Us, and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise; the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now, or would have been liable to, if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize: And that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner herein-after set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others, to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on Board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their

Agents,

[Price One Shilling.]

Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise. The Distribution shall be made as follows; the Whole of the Near Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts:

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers, being actually on Board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are herein-after mentioned:

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them: But that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which shall hereafter be taken by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be intitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them; provided such Physician be actually on Board at the Time of Taking such Prizes:

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boat-swains, Gunners, Purser, Captain, Master's Mates, Chirurgéon, Pilot, and Chaplain on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master Sailmaker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatswain's Mates, Gunner's Mates, Mailer at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswain, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters Mates, Chirurgéon's Mates, Yeoman of the Powder Room, Serjeants of Marines, and Land Forces on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Steward, Cook, Armourer, Steward's

Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on Board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

Provided, that if any Officer being on Board any of Our Ships of War at the Time of Taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than One, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the abovementioned Distribution, shall belong to his Superior Commission or Office. And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War, taking any Prize, as soon as may be, to transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on Board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on Board, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities or Ratings, of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War, and upon Request forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also upon Application to them (the said Commissioners) they shall give, or cause to be given, to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War, and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part herein-before mentioned to be granted to the Flag, or Flag Officers, who shall actually be on Board at the Taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command at Jamaica, or elsewhere, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there, before he arrives at the Place to which he is sent, and actually takes upon him the Command: Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent out to reinforce a superior Flag Officer at Jamaica, or elsewhere, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the superior Flag Officer, and actually receive some Order from him: Fourthly, That a Chief Flag Officer returning home from Jamaica, or elsewhere, shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind to act under another Command: Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels, which have sailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty: Sixthly, That when more Flag Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth Part, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided amongst the other Flag Officers: Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or serving under Command: Eighthly, That the first Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the first Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes, as the junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in the Case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers in the Manner herein-before directed in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers: Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be one on Board,) shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts; of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command: That the Share of the Chirurgeon, or Chirurgeon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgeon,) Midshipmen, and Clerk and Steward, shall be One Eighth; That the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's and Carpenter's Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on Board assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or armed Vessel, without any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War being present or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in case any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board such Cutters and Schooners, or armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination, on Board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventeenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and in the Thirty-third Year of Our Reign.

Whitehall, April 23.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Southampton, assembled assembled in pursuance of a Requisition to the High Sheriff from the Grand Jury at the late Assizes, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we have seen, with the deepest Concern, the Peace of your Kingdoms and the increasing Prosperity of your Subjects interrupted by a direct Aggression on the Part of the Executive Government of France, after every Attempt to disturb the internal Tranquillity of a free and happy People had failed. We feel ourselves forcibly called upon, in common with every good Subject in your Majesty's Dominions, to take this Occasion of renewing our solemn Assurances of the most dutiful Allegiance to your Majesty, and of the warmest Attachment to the Constitution as established by Law, in order to destroy, as far as can depend upon us, every Hope of Success entertained by our Enemies in their threatened Appeal to the Sentiments of the People from the Measures of your Majesty and the Proceedings of the Legislature. Persuaded as we are that the Security of our Laws, our Liberty, and our Religion, as well as the Safety of our Allies, and the general Quiet of Europe, are involved in the present Contest, entirely unprovoked on the Part of your Majesty, we shall cheerfully submit to the Burdens which the carrying it on with Vigor may render necessary.

The Loyalty, Duty and Attachment to your Majesty, which have been so universally manifested throughout these Kingdoms, and the Success which has already attended your Majesty's Interposition for the Protection of the United Provinces, together with the fortunate Events which have recently happened in the Low Countries, confirm us in the Hope which might naturally be entertained, that the united Exertions of a People, impressed with a strong Sense of the Benefits they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, will enable your Majesty to maintain successfully the Rights and Interests of your Crown, and to restore to your People, at no distant Period, the Blessings and Advantages of Peace.

George F. Tapps, Sheriff, in the Name of the County.

[Presented by Sir George Tapps, High Sheriff, and Sir William Heathcote and William Cbute, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

At a numerous Meeting of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County of Chester, held at Northwich on Monday the 18th Day of March, 1793, for the Purpose of considering of the Propriety of an Address to His Majesty on the present Situation of Publick Affairs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester, beg Leave most humbly to present this our Tribute of affectionate Attachment to you Majesty's Person and Government in the present interesting State of Publick Affairs throughout Europe, and to declare our firm and determined Resolution to support the invaluable and admirable Constitution of King, Lords and Commons, as by Law established, within these Realms, under which the Nation at large has risen to a Pre-eminence in Riches, Honor and Power hitherto unknown, and by whose Protection every Individual in it enjoys a Degree of Freedom, Security and Ease, which nothing but his own Transgression of the known Laws of his Country can take from him. We have beheld, with the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence, the Attempts of wicked and seditious Persons, to insinuate into the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects Inquietudes, Discontents and Jealousies, and acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude, the wise and prudent Means by which the traiterous Flame, just ready to blaze forth in Insurrection and Violence, has been stifled, and, as we most sanguinely hope, totally extinguished: We shall not cease in our respective Stations to labour to undeceive the Misted, to watch over the Evil-minded, and to confirm the Publick Tranquillity and Confidence in the best and mildest Government which human Wisdom ever devised.

Permit us, Sire, to express our grateful Sense of that paternal Regard for your People, so conspicuously manifested in the strictest Adherence to Neutrality with respect to France, and your Backwardness to plunge your Subjects into the Horrors of War, till the just Indignation, raised by the Infraction of a solemn Treaty, the most wanton Attack on our antient Allies, and an open Avowal of Sentiments of most mischievous Interference and determined Hostility towards this Country, called forth those Exertions of Self-Defence on the Part of your Majesty, which, we trust, the Almighty will crown with Success: And whilst we applaud the Caution and Wisdom which thus marked your Majesty's Councils and Conduct; ere yet the Sword was drawn, permit us also to declare our fullest Approbation of those timely and powerful Armaments, which have been so wisely prepared for our own internal Defence and the Assistance of our Allies; and to assure your Majesty, that how great a Calamity so ever we may deem War to be, and however we may regret the temporary Interruptions of our Commerce, and the Check given to the flattering Prospect of increasing Revenue, we cannot but give our hearty Support to Measures, which the open Aggression and secret Machinations of our Enemies have made so indispensibly necessary, and will, with our Lives and Fortunes, defend and vindicate the Dignity and Honor of the British Crown, and the Rights and Interests of the People.

[Presented by Mr. Egerton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Brethren of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in and for the County Palatine of Chester, and of the rest of the Lodges within the Province of Chester, in Lodge assembled.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Free and Accepted Masons within the Province of Chester, think it our indispensable Duty at this Time, and are happy to approach the Throne with our most cordial Expressions of Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and the present happy Government of this Land.

Although, as a Society, our Meetings are withdrawn from the Public Eye, and having through Ages been distinguished for keeping ourselves clear from the Discussion of Political Questions and Opinions, yet yet as the happy Constitution and Government under which we live have of late been attempted to be shaken by the dark Attacks of designing Men, who in their Meetings have discussed, and from thence disseminated Doctrines inimical to Rule and Order, but particularly to that effective System established in this Kingdom, the Envy of surrounding Nations, founded on Wisdom, Strength and Beauty, and obviously against the real Interests of a free People, we openly avow; that we are, by the very fundamental Laws of our Society, bound, by the strongest Ties, to obey the great Rule, "To fear God and to honour the King;" and as Subjects of this Realm we declare ourselves ready to stand up with the Foremost in every Exertion that may be thought necessary to discountenance Faction, to subdue Rebellion and Anarchy, and establish Order and due Subordination in Church and State; to answer this good End our Lives and Fortunes we willingly offer, and we zealously implore the Almighty Disposer of Events to direct your Majesty's Councils, and prosper such Measures as may be necessarily adopted to secure Peace and Prosperity to these Realms.

May your Majesty and Royal Consort long continue on the Throne to enjoy the Affections of a generous and grateful People; and may all the Arts of polished Life that can adorn and dignify a Nation flourish under your Auspices; and may the Principles of the British Constitution ever be revered, and Attachment to it's Monarch and Laws be the enulous Pursuit of each Subject of it's Realm till Time shall be no more.

Given under the Seal of the Grand Lodge at Chester, the 6th Day of April, A. L. 5793, A. D. 1793.

[Presented by Sir Robert Cotton, P. G. M.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriffs and Grand Jury of the City and County of Londonderry, assembled at Lent Assizes, 1793.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Sheriffs and Grand Jury of the City and County of Londonderry, assembled at Lent Assizes, 1793, most humbly beg Leave at this Time to express our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and to the established Constitution of these Kingdoms; and to profess to your Majesty and to the World, that we are too gratefully sensible of the Blessings which, under that Constitution, we enjoy, not to express our Disapprobation of any Body of Men presuming to interfere with those Prerogatives which are annexed to the Crown, and of the Exercise of which we see no Cause to complain; assuring your Majesty, at the same Time, that in whatever Mode our Exertions may be called for to repress Domestic or repel Foreign Enemies, we shall consider it not more our Interest than our Duty to prove, by our Actions, the Sincerity of our Professions.
