

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, beg Leave to express our Thanks to your Majesty for having embodied the Militia, and for having assembled your Parliament, at a Time when the most vigorous Measures were necessary for the Publick Security.

We have beheld with Indignation the hostile Aggressions of the Assembly possessing the Executive Power of France, who, in Pursuit of a System of Ambition and Aggrandizement, violate the Rights of Nations, endeavour to excite Disturbances in other Countries, and who, after having openly threatened the Subversion of established Governments and the Peace of Society, have declared War and commenced Hostilities against this Kingdom and her Allies.

Animated by the most firm Allegiance to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and contending for our dearest Interests, we have to assure your Majesty of our warmest Support to maintain the Stability of our happy Constitution, the Security and Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of our Religion, our Liberty, and our Laws.

Confiding in the Vigour and Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and in the Zeal and Courage of a free and loyal People, we look forward to the happy Period when the Contest of Arms may give Place to the Arts and Blessings of Peace, and when Reason may regain her Sway over the mad Ambition which has disturbed the Tranquillity of Europe.

Viewing with Horror the Distraction and recent Crimes of another Nation, we will not impute indiscriminately to a whole People the deliberate Injustice, the cruel and sanguinary Guilt, which stain their History; persuaded that the Country which gave Birth to a Bouillé and to a Desfeze, must still retain Multitudes of virtuous Men within her Territories, whose chief Blame and Misfortune it has been, that they wanted Courage or neglected to vindicate the Laws and the Principles of Justice at the Time when it was necessary to act.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Kirkcudbright, the 30th Day of April, 1793, by William Copland, Prefes.
