AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th of May, 1793,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of Council respecting the Exportation of Wheat and Wheat Flour; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same, and for making further Provisions relative thereto; and also for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Corn, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit and Potatoes, and to permit the Importation of Corn, Meal or Flour on the Low Duties," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and He and They is and are thereby authorized, by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, until the End of the present Session of Parliament, from Time to Time, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from Great Britain of any Sort of Corn, Meal or Flour, Bread or Biscuit whatsoever, or of Potatoes; and in like Manner to permit generally the Importation of Corn, Meal or Flour, subject to either of the Low Duties specified in the Table D. contained in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported:" His Majesty therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this His Majesty's Order in Council, it shall be lawful to import Wheat and Wheat-Meal or Flour upon the lowest Duty specified in the Table marked D. in the said Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, until the End of the present Session of Parliament, or until such Time as His Majesty shall think fit to revoke this present Order.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Direction herein accordingly.

Extract of a Letter from Colonel Sir James Murray, Bart. Adjutant-General to the Forces under the Command of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to Mr. Secretary Dundas, dated Tournay, May 10, 1793.

IN consequence of the Movements of the Enemy, which gave Reason to expect an Attack upon the Austrian and Prussian Posts, His Royal Highness determined to march in the Morning of the 8th to their Support. He arrived about Six o'Clock at the Camp of Maulde with the Brigade of Guards, and a Battalion of the 10th Regiment of Hanoverian Infantry. The Prussian General was by this Means enabled to reinforce himself, at St. Amand and the adjoining Wood, with the Troops which had occupied that important Position.

The Attack commenced about Seven o'Clock. It was directed against the Posts occupied by General Clairfait, which extend from the Scheldt to the Abbaye de Vicogne, and the Prussian Corps which defends the Wood in the Front of the high Road, leading from that Place to St. Amand.

To these Points were directed the whole Efforts of the French Army, which had been previously reinforced by all they could bring together from every Quarter. General Knobelsdorf, having been under the Necessity of sending a considerable Part of his Troops to support the Austrians at the Abbaye de Vicogne, His Royal Highness, about Five o'Clock, left Two Battalions in the Camp at Maulde, and marched with the Coldstream, the Flank Battalion; and that of the
