Whitehall, May 25.

The following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Reverend Doctor Thomas Hardy, Moderator, to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious Letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honour this Meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland was received with the utmost Respect and Gratitude.

As dutiful Subjects of a virtuous and affectionate Sovereign, we have a just Sense of the Confidence which your Majesty reposes in our Loyalty and Attachment to your Person and Government, and in our Zeal for the Cultivation of sound Learning and true Religion. We feel in it a most pleasing Recompence for having done our Duty, and we trust that our future Conduct will continue to deserve the same honourable Proofs of Royal Favour and Protection.

Convinced, by long and happy Experience, of your Majesty's good Disposition to the Church of Scotland, we rely, with the most perfect Security, on your Resolution to maintain it in all its established Rights and Privileges. We regard the present Declaration of your Royal Purpose to this Effect as a powerful Encouragement to direct our Proceedings to those great Objects for which we are assembled: And it shall be our Care, in Compliance with your Majesty's Desire, to labour assiduously in promoting such Measures as are best calculated to diffuse the Principles and Practice of genuine Christianity, to check the Progress of Vice and Impiety, and to infill into all Ranks of Men that Attention to moral Duties, that Love of Order and Obedience to the Laws, upon which the Peace, Harmony and true Happiness of Society so entirely depend. These are the great Ends of our Publick Establishment; and we deem it a peculiar Felicity that we live under a Prince who, by reminding us of our proper Work, teaches us that the faithful Discharge of our Duty to God and our Country is the most certain Recommendation to his Favour.

We beg Leave to return our humble Thanks to your Majesty for your persevering Attention to the Interests of Christian Knowledge and Virtue in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. We consider your Royal Donation for this Purpose as a fresh Proof of your Paternal Care for all your Subjects; and we shall endeavour to apply it in such a Manner as may best promote the generous and pious Design for which it is bestowed.

The hereditary and warm Attachment of the Earl of Leven to the Cause of Civil and Religious Liberty, his affectionate Regard for the Church of Scotland, his exemplary Conduct in private Life, and his approved Experience and Knowledge in the Administration of his important Office, render the Re-appointment of him to represent your Majesty's Royal Person a most acceptable Mark of Attention to this Assembly.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that it shall be our Study to conduct all our Proceedings with that Unanimity, cordial Affection and Christian Charity to one another, which become us as the Servants of the Prince of Peace, and which are so necessary for bringing the Purposes of our Meeting to a happy Conclusion.

That Almighty God may protect your Majesty's Person, prolong your Days, and direct your Councils: That He may bless the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family: That He may continue with us the many National Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Administration, and transmit them as a precious Inheritance to our Posterity; and that, after reigning long with Wisdom and Felicity over a free, loyal and happy People, you may receive from Him the Recompence of an Heavenly Crown, are the fervent Prayers of

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this
National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Thomas Hardy, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 18, 1793.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, think it our Duty, in the present Situation of Public Affairs, to express our Zeal for the Welfare of our Country, and our affectionate Regard for a Prince who is the Guardian of Liberty and the Father of his People.

We have beheld, with the strongest Feelings of Disapprobation, the insidious Designs and violent Attempts of the French Nation to overturn the Constitutions stitutions and disturb the Peace of most of the other Nations in Europe. We are fully sensible, that in consequence of the Declaration of War by the National Convention of France against Great Britain, and by the Acts of Hostility in which they have been engaged, your Majesty, with the Approbation of Parliament, was necessarily led to take vigorous Measures for repressing their Ambition and defeating their unjust Enterprizes.

Though some of the People under our Care were deluded by the dangerous Principles which were industriously propagated, we can assure your Majesty, that the great Body of the Members of this National Church continues strongly attached to your Majesty's Person and Government, and ardently desirous of the Success of those Measures which, with the Blessing of Providence, may transmit our excellent Constitution unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to express, by the Lord High Commissioner, the Sense which you entertain of the Boldness and Zeal with which the Ministers of the Church of Scotland manifested their Loyalty upon a late trying Occasion; a Mark of your Royal Approbation, which we received with profound Respect, and which affords us the most entire Satisfaction, because we are conscious that it is not misplaced.

Attached by the Genius of Presbyterian Government to good Order, no less than to Freedom, we have employed all our Influence in counteracting the Tendency of the seditious Writings which were assiduously circulated, and in warning the People committed to our Care against the busy Efforts of designing or deluded Men. In the true Spirit of those Principles which our Fathers, in former Seasons of Danger and Alarm, strenuously asserted, we shall continue to cherish in the Minds of the People, Loyalty to our gracious Sovereign, Veneration for the British Constitution, and Obedience to the Laws: And; having nothing so much at Heart as the Glory of God, the Honour of your Majesty, and the Support of your Government, we trust that while we approve ourselves the dutiful Servants of the Prince of Peace, we shall enjoy the Continuance of your Royal Protection, and the good Opinion of all the true Friends of their Country.

While we congratulate your Majesty upon the Check which, under Divine Providence, has already been given to the alarming Progress of our Enemies, we offer our earnest Supplications, that the God of Battles may continue to bless your Fleets and Armies with Success, and may bring the present War to a speedy and happy Termination: That mutual Love and Confidence may ever subsist between your Majesty and your Subjects, and that a Race of Kings of your Royal Line, Lovers of Religion, Liberty and their Country, may always sway the Sceptre over these Lands, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this
National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Thomas Hardy, Moderator.
