The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

And to Three Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Firmness, Wisdom and Public Spirit, by which your Conduct has been eminently distinguished on the many important Occasions which have arisen during the present Session, demand My peculiar Acknowledgements.

Your firm Determination to support the established Constitution, and the zealous and general Concurrence in that Sentiment which My Subjects have so strongly and seasonably manifested, could not fail to check every Attempt to disturb the internal Repose of these Kingdoms; and you will, I doubt not, in your several Counties, encourage the Continuance of the same vigilant Attention to that important Object.

The rapid and signal Successes which in an early Period of the Campaign have attended the Operations of the Combined Armies; the respectable and powerful Force which you have enabled Me to employ by Sea and Land, and the Measures which I have concerted with other Powers for the effectual Prosecution of the War, afford the best Prospect of an happy Issue to the important Contest in which We are engaged: It is only by Perseverance in vigorous Exertions, and by endeavouring to improve the Advantages already acquired, that we can hope to obtain the great End to which My Views are uniformly directed, the Restoration of Peace on such Terms as may be consistent with Our permanent Security, and with the general Tranquillity of Europe.

Gentlemen
