AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of July, 1793,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Seventh of December, 1792, to order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) should, during the Space of Six Months from the Date of the said Order, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council; which Order was, by another Order dated the Fourteenth Day of June, continued for and during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Seventh Day of the said instant June: And whereas it may be beneficial to the Trade and Manufacture of Gunpowder, if the Exportation thereof is permitted to certain Places, under certain Conditions; His Majesty, taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date hereof, the Exportation of Gunpowder shall, notwithstanding the said Orders, be permitted and allowed from any of the Ports of this Kingdom to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; provided that the Merchant, Exporter of such Gunpowder, do enter into Security by Bond, with Two other able and sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Principal Officers of the Customs at the Port from whence such Ship or Ships shall clear out, in Six Times the Value of the said Gunpowder so exported, and shall thereby engage that such Ship or Ships shall sail under Convoy, and shall not desert the same on the Voyage, nor until their Arrival at the Port of the Country for which such Gunpowder shall be cleared out; and upon further Condition to produce, within Two Months from the Date of the Bond, a Certificate or Certificates, from the proper Officers of the Customs in Ireland, of the due Landing of the Gunpowder cleared out for that Kingdom; and within Twelve Months from the Date of the Bond, from the Governor or Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, or the West Indies, or from the proper Officers of the Customs at Newfoundland, that the Gunpowder exported to any of the Ports of the said Colonies or Plantations, or of the Island of Newfoundland, respectively, has all been duly landed at the Port for which the same was cleared out; and the Bonds and Securities so entered into shall not be cancelled or delivered up, but on the Production of such Certificates: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
