Whitehall, July 29.

YESTERDAY Morning a Messenger arrived at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with Dispatches from the Earl of Yarmouth, dated at the Camp before Mayence, July 23, 1793, containing an Account of the Surrender of that City to His Prussian Majesty on the preceding Day, with the Articles of Capitulation, of which the following is a Translation.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION offered by Brigadier-General D'Oyré, Commander in Chief at Mayence, Cassel, and the Places which are dependent upon them.

Article I.

THE French Army shall deliver up to His Majesty the King of Prussia the City of Mayence and Cassel, together with their Fortifications and all the Posts which belong to them, in their present State; also the Artillery, both French and Foreign, Warlike Stores and Provisions, those Matters only excepted, which are mentioned in the following Articles.

Answer. Accepted.

Article II.

The Garrison shall march out with all the Honors of War, carrying away their Arms, Baggage and other Effects, the private Property of the Individuals of the Garrison.

Answer. Granted, on Condition that the Garrison shall not serve, during the Space of a Year, against the Armies of the Allied Powers; and that if they carry away any Covered Waggon, His Prussian Majesty reserves the Right of searching them, in case he should think proper.

Article III.

The Garrison shall be allowed to carry away with them their Field Pieces with their Carriages.

Answer. Refused.

Article IV.

Article IV.

The General Officers, private Persons, the Commissaries of War, all the Directors, and those employed under them, in the different Departments of the Army, and, in general, all Individuals, French Subjects, belonging to the Garrison, shall carry away their Horses, Carriages and Effects.

Answer. Granted.

Article V.

The Garrison shall remain in the Place Forty-eight Hours after the Signature of the present Capitulation, and, if that Time should not be sufficient for the last Divisions, a further Delay of Twenty-four Hours shall be granted to them.

Answer. Granted.

Article VI.

The Commanders in Chief shall be permitted to send one or more Agents, furnished with Passports by His Prussian Majesty, to endeavour to procure the Money necessary for the Payment of the Debts contracted by the Army; and the French Garrison desires, that, until the said Debts shall be discharged, or until an Arrangement shall be made for their Liquidation, Permission may be granted them to leave Hostages, who may rely on His Majesty's Protection.

Answer. Granted.

Article VII.

The Garrison of Mayence and its Dependencies, immediately after their Evacuation, shall begin their March towards France in several Columns, and shall set out at different Times. Each Column shall be furnished with a Prussian Escort for their Safety to the Frontier. General D'Oyré shall have the Liberty of sending in Advance the Staff Officers and the Commissaries of War, in order to provide for the Subsistence and Accommodation of the French Troops.

Answer. Granted.

Article VIII.

In case the Horses and Carriages belonging to the French Army should not be sufficient for the Transport of the Camp Equipage and other Effects mentioned in the preceding Articles, they shall be furnished with others in the Country, upon paying for them.

Answer. Granted.

Article IX.

As the Removal of the Sick, and especially of the Wounded, cannot be done by Land Carriage without endangering their Lives, a sufficient Number of Boats shall be furnished, at the Expence of the French Nation, for conveying them by Water to Thionville and Metz, taking the necessary Precautions for the Subsistence of those honorable Victims of the War.

Answer. Granted.

Article X.

Until the entire Evacuation of the French Army, none of the Inhabitants who are now out of Mayence, shall be permitted to return thither.

Answer. Granted.

Article XI.

Immediately after the Signature of the present Capitulation the Troops of the besieging Army may take Possession of the following Posts, viz.

Fort Charles.

Fort Welfch.

Fort Elizabeth.

Fort St. Philip.

The Double Tenail.

Fort Linsenberg.

Fort Hauptstein.

Fort Mars.

The Island of St. Peter, and the Two Gates of Cassel leading to Francfort and to Wisbaden.

They may moreover occupy, conjointly with the French Troops, the Gate of Newthor, and the Extremity of the Bridge of the Rhine adjacent to the Right Bank of that River.

Answer. Accepted.

Article XII.

Colonel Douay, Director of the Arsenal, Lieutenant-Colonel Riboiffieri, Sub-Director, and Lieutenant-Colonel Varine, Chief Officer of Engineers, shall deliver over, with as little Delay as possible, to the principal Officers of Artillery and Engineers of the Prussian Army, the Arms, Ammunition, Plans, &c. relative to the Duties with which they shall be respectively charged.

Answer. Accepted.

Article XIII.

A Commissary at War shall in like Manner be appointed to receive the Magazines and Effects which they contain.

Answer. Accepted.

Article XIV.

Additional Article.

The Deserters from the Combined Armies shall be strictly delivered up.

Done at Marienborn the 22d of July, 1793.
