Whitehall, August 28.

THE following Dispatch was this Morning received from Colonel Sir James Murray, Adjutant-General to the Forces under the Command of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Lefferinck's Hocke, August 26, 1793.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that His Royal Highness intended upon the 24th to attack the Enemy, who were still posted at some Distance from Dunkirk, in order to get Possession of the Ground which it was necessary to occupy previous to the Siege. They hastened the Execution of his Design by attacking the Out-Posts between the Canal of Furnes and the Sea. Lieutenant-General Dalton advanced with the Reserve, which was encamped upon that Side, to their Support. The Enemy were repulsed, and driven, with Loss, into the Town. One Piece of Cannon and a few Prisoners were taken. The Ardour of the Troops carried them further in the Pursuit than was intended, so that they came under the Cannon of the Place, by which Means a considerable Loss has been sustained. This was likelier to happen, and more difficult to be prevented, from the Nature of the Country, which is covered with Trees and strong Enclosures.

Lieutenant-General Dalton was killed with a Cannon Shot towards the Conclusion of the Attack. The Loss of this excellent Officer must be severely felt. The Courage and Ability, which he has displayed in the Course of many Campaigns, raised him to the highest Rank of Estimation in the Army in which he served.

His Royal Highness has likewise to lament that of Colonel Eld, of the Coldstream Regiment, and of other valuable Men.
