Majesty, in Foreign Bottoms, is not permitted, the Trade in that Article will be greatly injured; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the Date hereof, the Exportation of Rice shall, notwithstanding the said Order, be permitted and allowed from any of the Ports in this Kingdom to any Country in or out of Europe in Amity with His Majesty, in Foreign Ships or Vessels, provided the Merchant Exporter of any such Rice do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which such Rice shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, with Two sufficient Sureties, being known British Merchants, or other Persons of acknowledged Credit resident in this Kingdom, to be approved of by the proper Officers of the Customs, to carry the said Rice to the Place for which it is so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and to produce, within Twelve Months from the Date of the Bond, from the British Consul resident at the Port for which such Rice shall be cleared out, or in case there shall be no such Consul there resident, or he shall be absent from the same, then from Two British Merchants resident there, a Certificate or Certificates that such Rice has been all duly delivered at the Port for which the same was cleared out; and the Bonds or Securities shall not be cancelled or delivered up but on the Production of such Certificate or Certificates.
