

feilles, would rather have Recourse to the Generosity of a loyal People, who has manifested the Desire of protecting the true Frenchmen against the Anarchists who wish to ruin them,

DECLARE to ADMIRAL HOOD,

I. That the unanimous Wish of the Inhabitants of Toulon is to reject a Constitution which does not promote their Happiness, to adopt a Monarchic Government, such as it was originally by the Constituent Assembly of 1789; and, in Consequence, they have proclaimed LOUIS XVII. Son of LOUIS XVI. KING, and have sworn to acknowledge him, and no longer suffer the Despotism of the Tyrants which at this Time govern France.

II. That the White Flag shall be hoisted the Instant the English Squadron anchors in the Road of Toulon, and it will there meet the most friendly Reception.

III. That the Ships of War now in the Road will be disarmed according to Admiral Hood's Wishes.

IV. That the Citadel and the Forts of the Coast shall be provisionally at the Disposal of the said Admiral; but, for the better establishing the Union which ought to exist between the Two People, it is requested that the Garrison shall be composed of an equal Number of French and English, and that nevertheless the Command shall devolve to the English.

V. The People of Toulon trust the English Nation will furnish speedily a Force sufficient to assist in repelling the Attacks with which they are at this Moment threatened by the Army of Italy, which marches towards Toulon, and by that of General Carteau, who directs his Forces against Marseilles.

VI. That the People of Toulon, full of Confidence in the generous Offers of Admiral Hood, trust that all those who held Civil and Military Employments shall be continued in their Places, and shall not be annoyed in their respective Occupations:

VII. That the Subsistence and Succours of every Kind, of which Toulon stands so much in Need, will be assured to the Inhabitants by the Combined Fleet of the Powers Coalesced.

VIII. That when Peace will have been re-established in France; the Ships and Forts which will be put into the Hands of the English shall be restored to the French Nation, in the same State they were in when the Inventory was delivered.

It is according to this Déclaration, if approved by Admiral Hood, that the Toulonese will regard themselves, with good Heart and Will, as belonging to the English and the other Powers Coalesced, and by whose Succour will be brought about that Peace after which they have panted so long.
