Extract of a Letter from the Earl of Elgin, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Brussels, to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, dated Bermerain, September 11, 1793.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Satisfaction of informing your Lordship, that this Morning La Quefnoy has surrendered to the Troops of His Imperial Majesty. At Midnight the Town ceased Firing, and an Officer came out with the Terms on which the Garrison proposed to capitulate. These Terms were rejected, in so far as they deviated from the Point, which General Clairfayt had resolved to insist upon, namely, that the Garrison should be Prisoners of War. This Condition, though combated, did not appear unexpected; and the Officer, on quitting General Clairfayt, gave Assurances that the Stipulations he had consented to would be accepted.

At the Moment of dispatching my Messenger, the Capitulation is not actually signed: But as Prince Cobourg, General Clairfayt, and Count Mercy have severally confirmed to me the Surrender, and authorized me to communicate it to your Lordship, I hope my doing so will not appear hasty.

The Garrison is to march out on the 13th Instant.
