

St. James's, September 24.

Sunday last being the Anniversary of Their Majesties Coronation, the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and there were other public Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, September 24.

Extract of a Letter from the Earl of Yarmouth to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs. Dated Maikammer, September 15, 1793.

AN Aid-de-Camp of the Duke of Brunswick is just arrived, with an Account that the Duke of Brunswick was Yesterday attacked by the French near Pirmazens, but that, by a very judicious Manœuvre, he turned their Flank so compleatly as to surround them, when they threw down their Arms and surrendered themselves Prisoners of War, to the Amount of 3000. He took 27 Pieces of Cannon and Two Howitzers. The Number of the Dead cannot be ascertained, as the Duke was left in the Pursuit. He also was so fortunate, in the Course of the Operations, as to burn the Baggage and Tents of another Body of French, encamped near Bitche. While the Duke was so well employed on one Side, General Kalkreuth was attacked in another Quarter, but very faintly; and the Action concluded by his cutting to Pieces the Regiment emphatically called les Sans Culottes, and taking 67 Men of another Corps.

Office of Ordnance, September 18.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Saturday the 14th, or early in the Morning of Sunday the 15th Instant, some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, stole and carried away from the Parish Church of Mordon, in the County of Surry, the following Articles, viz. 3 l. 11 s. 10 d. Sacrament Money, and 2 l. 0 s. 3 d.  $\frac{1}{2}$  Brief Money, Three Common Prayer Books with Red Covers, the Name of "Edward Polhill, Mordon Park, Surry," written therein, and about Eight or Ten Yards of Green Cloth, cut or torn from the Pew of the said Edward Polhill.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony and Sacrilege, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Church-Wardens of the said Parish.

J. W. Peers, Restor.

Edw. Polhill, Church-Warden.

Whitehall, September 17, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto the King, that on Sunday Morning the 8th Instant, between Three and Four o'Clock, a Fire was discovered in one of the Warehouses adjoining to the Dwelling-House of Mess. Jenkins and Green in the Town of Shepton-Mallet, and had it not been for the timely Assistance and Exertions of the Military quartered in the said Town, by working the Fire Engines, probably One Half of the Town, or more, must have been reduced to Ashes: That there is great Reason to believe that the said Fire was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Warehouse as aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mess. Jenkins and Green do hereby, in Addition to the Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS from the Directors of the Sun, Royal Exchange and Phoenix Fire Offices, offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Samson Bowles, for Jenkins and Green.

Whitehall, September 14, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Warehouse of Mr. James Davies, Dealer in Mahogany, situate in Grub-Street, in the Parish of St. Giles, Cripplegate, was feloniously broke open and set on Fire at or before Day-Break in the Morning of Monday the 9th Instant, by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown.

For the better discovering the Persons concerned in this daring Outrage, His Majesty has been pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any One of the Offenders, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the Premises,) who shall make Discovery of his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they may be brought to due Punishment.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Person making such Discovery will become intitled to the Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS from the Directors of the Royal Exchange, Sun and Phoenix Fire Offices, according to their Public Advertisement for the Discovery of Incendiaries; to which Reward I the undersigned do hereby undertake to make an Addition of FIFTY POUNDS upon the Conviction of any One of the Offenders.

James Davies.
