AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th of September, 1793,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council bearing Date the Thirteenth of March, 1793, to order, that an Embargo should be forthwith laid upon all Ships or Vessels laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain with Salted Provisions of any Kind whatsoever, and also upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden with Butter and Cheese, Pease, Beans, Rice, Hay, Straw, or Forage of any Kind whatsoever, and with Hides or Leather manufactured or unmanufactured; but it was His Majesty's Pleasure, amongst other Things, that the said Embargo should not extend to any Ships or Vessels, being British Ships and Vessels, and navigated according to Law, which may be employed in carrying any of the Articles abovementioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty: And whereas it hath been represented, on Behalf of the Merchants concerned in the Exportation of Tanned Leather, and also of the Merchants concerned in the Exportation of Salted Pilchards, and other Salted Fish, that the Trade in the said several Articles will be greatly injured, if such Articles are not permitted to be exported in Foreign Ships, under proper Regulations; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the Date hereof, the Exportation of Tanned Leather, and also of Salted Pilchards, and other Salted Fish, shall, notwithstanding the said Order of the Thirteenth of March last, be permitted and allowed from any of the Ports in this Kingdom to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty, in Foreign Ships or Vessels, provided the Merchant Exporter of any such Tanned Leather and Salted Pilchards, or other Salted Fish, do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which such Tanned Leather and Salted Pilchards, or other Salted Fish, shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, with Two sufficient Sureties, being known British Merchants, or other Persons of acknowledged Credit resident in this Kingdom, to be approved of by the proper Officers of the Customs, to carry the said Tanned Leather and Salted Pilchards, or other Salted Fish, to the Place for which the same are respectively entered Outwards, and to produce, within Twelve Months from the Date of the Bond, from the British Consul resident at the Port for which such Tanned Leather and Salted Pilchards, or other Salted Fish, shall be cleared out; or, in case there shall be no such Consul there resident, or he shall shall be absent from the same, then from Two British Merchants resident there, a Certificate or Certificates that such Tanned Leather and Salted Pilchards, or other Salted Fish, have been all duly delivered at the Ports for which the same were cleared out; and such Bonds or Securities shall not be cancelled or delivered up but on the Production of such Certificate or Certificates. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawcener.

Whitehall, September 21, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Saturday the 14th, or early in the Morning of Sunday the 15th Instant, some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, stole and carried away from the Parish Church of Morden, in the County of Surry, the following Articles, viz. 3l. 11s. 10d. Sacrament Money, and 2l. 0s. 3d. Brief Money, Three Common Prayer Books with Red Covers, the Name of "Edward Polhill, Morden Park, Surry," written therein, and about Eight or Ten Yards of Green Cloth, cut or torn from the Pew of the said Edward Polhill.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony and Sacrilege, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Church-Wardens of the said Parish.

J. W. Peers, Rector.

Edw. Polhill, Church-Warden.

Whitehall, September 17, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto the King, that on Sunday Morning the 8th Instant, between Three and Four o'Clock, a Fire was discovered in one of the Warehouses adjoining to the Dwelling-House of Mess. Jenkins and Green in the Town of Stepton-Mallet, and had it not been for the timely Assistance and Exertions of the Military quartered in the said Town, by working the Fire Engines, probably One Half of the Town, or more, must have been reduced to Ashes: That there is great Reason to believe that the said Fire was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Warehouse as aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mess. Jenkins and Green do hereby, in Addition to the Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS from the Directors of the Sun, Royal Exchange and Phoenix Fire Offices, offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Samson Bowles, for Jenkins and Green.

Whitehall, September 14, 1793.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Warehouse of Mr. James Davies, Dealer in Mahogany, situate in Grub-Street, in the Parish of St. Giles, Cripplegate, was feloniously broke open and set on Fire at or before Day-Break in the Morning of Monday the 9th Instant, by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown.

For the better discovering the Persons concerned in this daring Outrage, His Majesty has been pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any One of the Offenders, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the Premises,) who shall make Discovery of his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they may be brought to due Punishment.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Person making such Discovery will become intitled to the Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS from the Directors of the Royal Exchange, Sun and Phoenix Fire Offices, according to their Public Advertisement for the Discovery of Incendiaries; to which Reward I the undersigned do hereby undertake to make an Addition of FIFTY POUNDS upon the Conviction of any One of the Offenders.
